People Sjaak Koenis, 2014 In the wake of 9 11 and the murders of Pim Fortuyn 2002 and Theo van Gogh 2004 Dutch politics and society changed dramatically The widely shared belief that the Netherlands is a modern country was dealt a severe blow The Dutch discovered that they live in a country whose cultural and national identity is contested In politics and society national culture and identity became an important theme and new dividing lines emerged In Voices of the People philosopher Sjaak Koenis analyzes these changes To understand why culture and identity became so important in the Netherlands it is not enough to blame politicians who were unwilling to face troublesome facts about migration integration and the role of Europe Rather it was their belief in the modernization of the Netherlands that blinded them to the resurgence of the desire
