Waging Peace In Our Schools:

Waging Peace in Our Schools Linda Lantieri, Janet Patti, 1998-07-01 From the largest and most successful school initiatives in social and emotional learning in the country The Resolving Conflict Creatively Program now active in more than 350 schools nationwide comes a powerful practical guide for teaching young people to empathize mediate negotiate and create peace The authors address everything from minor schoolyard conflicts to violent outbursts and offer educators and parents proven strategies for enhancing children's emotional social and conflict resolution skills Waging Peace in Our Schools Linda Lantieri, 1995 Peace Education, 3d ed. Ian M. Harris, Mary Lee Morrison, 2012-12-13 Now in its third edition Peace Education provides a comprehensive approach to educating for a just and sustainable future It begins with religious and historical trends that have molded our understanding of peace and then presents a variety of ways to practice peace education in schools and communities and explains how it can motivate students The teaching and practice of peace education provides a basis of valuable knowledge about resolving conflicts and transforming violence without the use of force Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Peace Education from the Grassroots Ian M. Harris, 2013-09-13 This book shares stories of grassroots peace education initiatives in thirteen nations highlighting the efforts of citizens teachers and activists to counteract violence It includes a chapter on the International Red Cross's human rights curriculum in various countries showcasing diverse peace education efforts United States Foreign Policy and the Prospects for Peace Education Carl Mirra, 2008-03-31 In light of the United States age of terrorism and the controversial involvement in the war in Iraq U S policies toward diplomatic peace education are coming under increasing scrutiny This book evaluates the prospects for effective U S peace education in the context of post 1945 U S foreign policy The work first documents the disparity between U S pronouncements about protecting human rights and the country's systematic erosion of those rights in the international arena Second it evaluates the challenges that the war on terrorism poses for peace education and explores the importance of international treaties in upholding security A final section explores new ways of thinking and relating that are ultimately necessary for the realization of nonviolent peacekeeping efforts Designed as a resource text for U S educators the text offers concrete proposals for addressing contentious foreign policy issues in the classroom and includes an appendix of primary documents and sample questions for easy use Education 96/97 Frederick Marshall Schultz, 1996 Schools with Spirit Linda Lantieri, 2002-08-16 In Schools with Spirit fourteen respected educators ask whether schools can nurture the inner life of students without violating the beliefs of families or the separation of church and state For anyone who is concerned for the inner lives of our children Schools with Spirit inspires through deeply moving stories about everything from the first tentative steps toward fostering emotional growth in our children to the bold movement of welcoming the spiritual dimension in our schools Journal South Dakota Educational Association, 1947 Journal of the National Education Association, 1915 The Journal of the National Education

Association National Education Association of the United States,1923 Education for a Culture of Peace in a Gender Perspective Betty Reardon,2001 The UN Declaration and Programme of Action on a Culture of Peace was adopted by the UN General Assembly in 1999 and has as one of its eight pillars the aim of fostering an international peace culture through education This book approaches the issues of social justice and peace studies from the perspective of gender equality The book is designed as a training resource for pre service and in service teacher training at upper secondary school level but can also be used at other educational levels as well as in non formal education Its aim is to help students develop the skills and capacities to promote the values and attitudes consistent with a culture of peace The book also contains suggested reading and internet sites for further study Annual Meeting Program American Educational Research Association,2000
