Waking Up Sixties William Jordan:

Waking Up in the Sixties William Jordan, 2015-12-09 Adrian Masters arrives at UC Berkeley in 1963 at the beginning of one of the most turbulent and influential periods of modern American history. Emerging currents of political, cultural, and spiritual revolution come together in an unprecedented combination to excite and inspire the rising generation. The war in Vietnam and consequential student protests, the civil rights movement, the sexual revolution, the influx of spiritual teachers from the East, and the flood of interest in psychedelic drugs meet in a transformative confluence that completely changes the lives and values of young men and women. Drawn by the magnetic power of these movements, Adrian struggles to find his own place in relation to them as he discovers another force within himself that leads him toward a completely different way of facing life. When he finds and joins a group of like-minded seekers, he embarks upon a spiritual journey that leads him deeply inward in the midst of the inner forces that drive him and the dramatically changing world around him.

This volume explores one of the more pressing aspects of the problem: storage from 1910 to the end of World War II, contrasting the reality and perception of car parking as found in the pages of the popular newspapers and magazines. From early bans on street parking to street widening efforts to the introduction of parking lots, garages, and parking meters, the book chronicles attempts to accommodate the ever-increasing number of cars. By failing to effect any meaningful regulations along the way, this work shows Americans slowly ceding authority and dominance to the automobile to the detriment of present-day society.      Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce Bulletin, 1924      Captain Mary Miller Harriet Jane Hanson Robinson, 1887      Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith, 1908      Herald of Gospel Liberty, 1908      Leaves of Healing, 1922      The Accountant, 1923      Good Times/bad Times James Kirkwood, 1968 Good Times Bad Times is the story of an eighteen-year-old boy groping to find himself, battling to protect a profound friendship and manfully enduring torment until he can endure it no longer. Peter Kilburn, son of a down-on-his-luck Hollywood actor, has been sent East to take his senior year at Gilford, a once fashionable but now decidedly second-rate New England prep school. Lonely among a pack of alien schoolboys but proud defiant and totally sympathetic Peter vows to prove his worth to Gilford's forbidding headmaster who compulsively seeks to restore to the school the honor that was so badly tarnished by scandal only a few years earlier In Jordan Legier a frail but charismatic young man wise beyond his years Peter finds a warm friend Witty knowing and generous Jordan shares with Peter a series of unforgettable good times on and off the campus But the good times are only prelude to a chain of increasingly menacing and finally tragic confrontations with their iron-willed headmaster who sees in the boys relationship a perversion that in fact lingers elsewhere on the Gilford campus dust jacket cover
