considered to be more spontaneous and uncontrolled whereas ritual behaviour is regarded as planned formalized and stereotyped and hence less emotional However as the volume demonstrates rituals often reveal strong emotions among participants are motivated by feelings or are intended to generate them The essays discuss the motivation for rituals the healing function of emotions the creation of new emotions through new media the aspect of mimesis in the generation of feelings individual collective and non human emotions the importance of trance and possession staged emotions and emotions on stage emotions in the context of martyrdom emotions in Indian and Western dance traditions emotions of love sorrow fear aggression and devotion Furthermore aesthetic and sensory dimensions as well as emic concepts of emotions in rituals are underscored as relevant in understanding social practice The Primitive Methodist hymnal, compiled by a committee appointed by the conference of 1882 Primitive Methodists conference,1887 Indiana Farmer's Guide ,1921
