Walter Benjamin Selected Writings Volume 2 Part 1 1927 1930:

Selected Writings Walter Benjamin, 2004 In the final years of the Weimar Republic Benjamin emerged as the most original public intellectual in the German speaking world Here Benjamin is represented by two of his greatest literary essays Surrealism and On the Image of Proust as well as by an article on Goethe and a selection of his wide ranging commentary for German newspapers Selected Writings: 1927-1934 Walter Benjamin, Howard Eiland, Gary Smith, 1996 Comprising more than 65 pieces journal articles reviews extended essays sketches aphorisms and fragments this volume shows the range of Walter Benjamin s writing His topics here include poetry fiction drama history religion love violence morality and mythology

Walter Benjamin's Antifascist Education Tyson E. Lewis, 2020-02-01 Walter Benjamin s Antifascist Education is the first comprehensive analysis of educational themes across the entirety of the critical theorist s diverse writings Starting with Benjamin s early reflections on teaching and learning Tyson E Lewis argues that the aesthetic and cultural forms to which Benjamin so often turned namely radio broadcasts children s theatrical productions collections cityscapes public cinemas and word games swell with educational potentialities What emerges from Lewis s reading is a constellational curriculum composed of minor practices such as poor teaching absentminded learning and nondurational studying This curriculum carries political significance offering an antidote to past and present forms of fascist manipulation hardness and coldness Walter Benjamin s Antifascist Education is a testimony to Benjamin s belief that everyone is an educator and everyone needs to be educated and everything is education Totalitarian Space and the Destruction of Aura Saladdin Ahmed, 2019-02-14 Diagnoses our contemporary spatial experience as fundamentally totalitarian through a multilayered critical theory of space We live today within a system in which state and corporate power aim to render space flat transparent and uniform for only then can it be truly controlled The gaze of power and the commodity form are capable of infiltrating even the darkest of corners and often we invite them into our most private spaces We do so as a matter of convenience but also to placate ourselves and cope with the alienation inherent in our everyday lives The resulting dominant space can best be termed totalitarian It is space stripped of uniqueness deprived of the spatial aura necessary for authentic experience In Totalitarian Space and the Destruction of Aura Saladdin Ahmed sets out to help us grasp what has been lost before no trace remains He draws attention to that which we might prefer not to see but despite the bleakness of this indictment of reality the book also offers a message of hope Namely it is only once we comprehend the magnitude of the threat to our spatial experience and our own complicity in sustaining this system that we can begin to resist the totalizing forces at work This is a clear and important contribution to the existing literature and contemporary political thought in general It expounds upon Benjamin s analysis of the aura in his famous essay Art in the Age of Mechanical Reproduction and importantly illustrates how this concept is incredibly pertinent to our society today Mary Caputi author of Feminism and Power The Need for Critical Theory Adorno's Critique of Political Economy Dirk Braunstein, 2022-11-21 To this day there persists a widespread assumption that Adorno's references to Marx and especially to Marx's critique of political economy represent a relic from an early and short lived stage of Adorno's theoretical development. On the basis of relevant and largely unpublished textual sources this book refutes this thesis while showing that the centre of Adorno's critical theory of society is occupied by a critique not only of political economy but of economy in general. Wanted, More than Human Intellectual Property Johanna

Gibson, 2024-12-27 This book analyses animal creativity in order to unsettle the dominant assumptions that underpin current ideas of authorship and ownership in intellectual property. Drawing upon theories of animal behaviour and cognitive ethology the book exposes and disrupts the anthropocentrism that informs prevailing assumptions about creativity, intentionality and authorship within the field of intellectual property, towards a new theory of authorship and personhood through play and the playful. Moving on to challenge the invocation of a more general human/nonhuman distinction in this context the book also engages the challenge to this distinction posed by artificial intelligence. Incorporating critical animal studies, behavioural science, ethology, critical legal studies and legal philosophy the book presents a new idea of creativity which undermines the kind of rivalrous models now common in the field of intellectual property. This book will be of considerable interest to those studying and teaching in the area of intellectual property as well as in animal law. It will also appeal to legal theorists and others working in the social sciences in the areas of posthumanism and animal studies. Militarized Masculinity in Spain and Chile Lisa DiGiovanni, 2025-10-14 In the context of authoritarian rule, torture has repeatedly emerged as a tool of social control. When we ask why and how, through a comparative lens, patterns become visible. The right wing military regimes of Francisco Franco in Spain and Augusto Pinochet in Chile exemplify how militarized masculinity served to enforce political repression and instill fear. Militarized Masculinity in Spain and Chile proposes that until we connect the dots between masculinity, militarism and violence we cannot fully comprehend the causes and consequences of dictatorial brutality. Lisa DiGiovanni provides an in depth examination of how literature and film illuminate these often overlooked relationships, bridging historical and cultural contexts. The book presents a comprehensive exploration of militarized masculinity as it pertains to these interconnected regimes, revealing the intersections between gender constructs and state violence. By analyzing representations in various cultural texts Militarized Masculinity in Spain and Chile sheds light on the enduring mechanisms of power and control that continue to resonate today. Faulkner, Aviation, and Modern War Michael Zeitlin, 2021-12-02 Faulkner, Aviation, and Modern War frames William Faulkner's airplane narratives against major scenes of the early 20th century: the Great War, the rise of European fascism in the 1920s and 30s, the Second World War and the aviation arms race extending from the Wright Flyer in 1903 into the Cold War era. Placing biographical accounts of Faulkner's time in the Royal Air Force, Canada, against analysis of such works as Soldiers Pay 1926, All the Dead Pilots 1931, Pylon 1935 and A Fable 1954, this book situates Faulkner's aviation writing within transatlantic historical contexts that have not been sufficiently appreciated in Faulkner's work. Michael Zeitlin unpacks a broad selection of Faulkner's novels, stories, film treatments essays book reviews and letters to outline Faulkner's complex and ambivalent relationship to the ideologies of masculine performance and martial heroism in an age dominated by industrialism and military technology Walter Benjamin Walter Benjamin,1996 Design Issues ,2009 Selected Writings: 1938-1940 Walter Benjamin,1996
