Becoming Austrians Lisa Silverman, 2012-06-19 The collapse of Austria Hungary in 1918 left all Austrians in a state of political social and economic turmoil but Jews in particular found their lives shaken to the core Although Jews former comfort zone suddenly disappeared the dissolution of the Dual Monarchy also created plenty of room for innovation and change in the realm of culture Jews eagerly took up the challenge to fill this void and they became heavily invested in culture as a way to shape their new but also vexed self understandings By isolating the years between the World Wars and examining formative events in both Vienna and the provinces Becoming Austrians Jews and Culture between the World Wars demonstrates that an intensified marking of people places and events as Jewish accompanied the crises occurring in the wake of Austria Hungary s collapse with profound effects on Austria s cultural legacy In some cases the consequences of this marking resulted in grave injustices Philipp

Halsmann for example was wrongfully imprisoned for the murder of his father years before he became a world famous photographer And the men who shot and killed writer Hugo Bettauer and philosopher Moritz Schlick received inadequate punishment for their murderous deeds But engagements with the terms of Jewish difference also characterized the creation of culture as shown in Hugo Bettauer s satirical novel The City without Jews and its film adaptation other texts by Veza Canetti David Vogel A M Fuchs Vicki Baum and Mela Hartwig and performances at the Salzburg Festival and the Yiddish theater in Vienna By examining the lives works and deeds of a broad range of Austrians Lisa Silverman reveals how the social codings of politics gender and nation received a powerful boost when articulated along the lines of Jewish difference

Connected Histories Eva Pfanzelter,Dirk Rupnow,Éva Kovács,Marianne Windsperger,2024-09-23 The World Wide Web WWW and digitisation have become important sites and tools for the history of the Holocaust and its commemoration Today some memory institutions use the Internet at a high professional level as a venue for self presentation and as a forum for the discussion of Holocaust related topics for potentially international transcultural and interdisciplinary user groups At the same time it is not always the established institutions that utilise the technical possibilities and potential of the Internet to the maximum Creative and sometimes controversial new forms of storytelling of the Holocaust or more traditional ways of remembering the genocide presented in a new way with digital media often come from people or groups who are not in the realm of influence of the large memorial sites museums and archives Such private stagings have experienced a particular upswing since the boom of social media This democratisation of Holocaust memory and history is crucial though it is as yet undecided how much it will ultimately reinforce old structures and cultural regional or other inequalities or reinvent them The Digital space as an arbitrary and limitless archive for the mediation of the Holocaust spanning from Russia to Brazil is at the centre of the essays collected in this volume This space is also considered as a forum for negotiation a meeting place and a battleground for generations and stories and as such offers the opportunity to reconsider the transgenerational transmission of trauma family histories and communication Here it becomes evident there are new societal intentions and decision making structures that exceed the capabilities of traditional mass media and thrive on the participation of a broad public
