Reckoning with Restorative Justice Leanne Trapedo Sims, 2023-09-18 In Reckoning with Restorative Justice Leanne Trapedo Sims explores the experiences of women who are incarcerated at the Women s Community Correctional Center the only women s prison in the state of Hawai i Adopting a decolonial and pro abolitionist lens she focuses particularly on women s participation in the Kailua Prison Writing Project and its accompanying Prison Monologues program Trapedo Sims argues that while the writing project served as a vital resource for the inside women it also remained deeply embedded within carceral logics at the institutional state and federal levels She foregrounds different aspects of these programs such as the classroom spaces and the dynamics that emerged between performers and audiences in the Prison Monologues Blending ethnography literary studies psychological analysis and criminal justice critique Trapedo Sims centers the often overlooked stories of incarcerated Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander women in Hawai i in ways that resound with the broader American narrative the disproportionate incarceration of people of color in the prison industrial complex

Magedera, 2014-09-01 Concerning itself with biography and bio fiction written in English and in French and also taking in American and Australian subjects Outsider Biographies focuses on writers who have a criminal record and on notorious criminals who authors of bio fiction consider as writers It pursues an understanding of the formal effects of life writers struggles between championing their subjects and a deep ambivalence towards their subjects crimes The book analyses the challenge that these literary outsiders present to the mainstream French and English language traditions where many biographers assign merit to productive lives well lived The book s approach illuminates both differences in those traditions from the mid eighteenth to the twenty first century and a convergence between them evident in the experimental cum fictional devices in recent English language biography Outsider Biographies advances wide ranging new interpretations of the biographical writing on each of its seven subjects but does so in a way that invites the reader picking up the book out of a passion for just one of those subjects to follow the thread onto another and yet another
