The Year's Work in Showgirls Studies Melissa Hardie, Melissa Jane Hardie, Meaghan Morris, Kane Race, 2023-12-12 The Year's Work in Showgirls Studies is a fan culture volume that deconstructs how and why Showgirls a 1995 drama with a female lead bent on becoming a famous performer in Las Vegas became a much contested cult film despite being a critical failure when it released The collection orchestrates a conversation between scholarly essay work and archival documentation offering a magnificent representation of the array of responses generated by the film its makers its promoters and its audience A multifaceted approach to the film its popularity and its social relevance results in a new text for understanding normative social hierarchies of sexuality race and gender The Year's Work in Showgirls Studies engages with the figurative and actual place of sex work and feminized affective labor in our society

New Directions in Flânerie Kelly Comfort, Marylaura Papalas, 2021-11-29 This book distinguishes itself from previous scholarship by offering an inclusive and comprehensive treatment of urban walking from 1800 to the present Divided into three sections geography genius and gender the introduction establishes the origins of the flâneur and flâneuse in early foundational texts and explores later works that reimagine flânerie in terms of these same three themes The volume's contributors provide new and global perspectives on urban walking practices through their treatment of a variety of genres literature film journalism autobiography epistolary correspondence photography fashion music digital media and regions Europe Asia the Americas Africa the Middle East This volume theorizes well known urban characters like the idler lounger dandy badaud promeneuse shopper collector and detective and also proposes new iterations of the flâneur flâneuse as fashion model gaucho cruiser musician vampire postcolonial activist video game avatar and gamer

Women in the Cinemas of Iran and Turkey Gönül Dönmez-Colin, 2019-07-19 This volume compares the cinemas of Iran and Turkey in terms of the presence and absence of women on both sides of the camera From a critical point of view it provides detailed readings of works by both male and female film makers emphasizing issues facing women s film making Presenting an overview of the modern histories of the two neighbouring countries the study traces certain similarities and contrasts particularly in the reception adaption and representation of Western modernity and cinema This is followed by the exploration of the images of women on screen with attention to minority women investigating post traumatic cinema s approaches to women Islamic Revolution of 1979 in Iran and the 1980 coup d tat in Turkey and women s interpretations of post traumatic experiences Furthermore the representations of sexualities and LGBTI identities within cultural traditional and state imposed restrictions are also discussed Investigating border crossing in physical and metaphorical terms the research explores the hybridities in the artistic expressions of deterritorialized film makers negotiating loyalties to both vatan motherland and the adopted country This comprehensive analysis of the cinemas of Iran and Turkey based on extensive research fieldwork interviews and viewing of countless films is a key resource for students and scholars interested in film gender and cultural studies and the Middle East    Narrative Drifters Mariah E. Band de Filles Frances Smith,2020-01-20 Few films in the twenty first century have represented coming of age with the beauty and brutality of Bande de Filles or Girlhood This book provides an in depth examination of Cline Sciamma s film focusing on its portrayal of female adolescence in contemporary Paris Motivated by the absence of black female characters in French cinema Sciamma represents the lives of figures that have passed largely unnoticed on the big screen While observing the girls tough circumstances Sciamma s film emphasises the joy and camaraderie found in female friendships This book places Girlhood in its cinematic as well as its sociocultural context Pop music urban violence and female friendships are all considered here in a book that draws out the complexity of Sciamma s deceptively simple portrayal of coming of age Thoughtful concise and deeply contemporary this book is perfect for students scholars and general readers interested in youth cultures European cinema gender and sexuality    Women Who Love Women in French Contemporary Literature and Film Annabelle Dolidon,2009-05-26 In this study I analyze late twentieth century French novels and movies that have central to their narratives love between women and I bring to the surface the fresh standpoints that authors and filmmakers develop about changing and contested modes of relationality in modern France More particularly I demonstrate how the normative connotations of lesbian love first impose oppressive and reductive representations of women who love women and second how these connotations can be displaced from within and once subverted open up questions that pertain to other domains of human life than love in particular to notions of temporality community and relationality    Cinema and the Second Sex Carrie Tarr,Brigitte Rollet,2001 This volume is a study of women in French cinema from 1981 which includes material on stars directors and producers Each chapter includes an analysis of five or six films and a concluding chapter examines the value and place of women in the French film industry     Claire Denis Martine Beugnet,2021-06-15 Claire Denis is one of France's most acclaimed and original filmmakers. Since her remarkable debut success with Chocolat 1986 she has produced an impressive series of features which have been intriguing, visually striking and often highly controversial, including Beau Travail 2000 and Trouble Every Day 2001. Beugnet provides a thematic and stylistic framework within which to consider Denis's work as well as a comprehensive analysis of individual films. She highlights the resonance of Denis's films in relation to ongoing debates about French national identity and culture and issues of postcolonial identity, alienation and transgression, as well as examining their exploration of the interface between sexuality, desire and sensuality. This is an essential introduction to Denis and a sophisticated and illuminating study of her work to date.     Narrative Identities in Contemporary French Autobiographical Literature and Film Deirdre D.
