Space And Time In Language And Literature:

Space and Time in Language and Literature Lovorka Gruić Grmuša, Marija Brala Vukanović, 2009-10-02 Space and time their infiniteness and or their limit ation s their coding conceptualization and the relationship between the two have been intriguing people for millennia Linguistics and literature are no exceptions in this sense This book brings together eight essays which all deal with the expression of space and or time in language and or literature The book explores the issues of space time and their interrelation from two different perspectives the linguistic and the literary The first section Time and Space in Language contains four papers which focus on linguistics i e explore issues relative to the expression of time and space in natural languages The topics under consideration include typology regarding the expression of spatial information in languages around the world Ch 1 space as expressed and conceptualized in neutral postural and verbs of fictive motion Ch 2 prepositional semantics Ch 3 aspectuality in Tamil Ch 4 All articles propose innovative topics and or approaches crossreferring when possible between space and time Given that all seem to propose at least some elements of language universality vs language variability the strong cognitivist nature of the approach even when the paper is not written within a cognitive linguistic framework represents a particularly strong feature of the section with a strong appeal to experts from fields that need not necessarily be linguistic The second section of this volume Space and Time in Literature brings together four essays dealing with literary topics Inherent in each narrative are both temporal and spatial implications because a literary text testifies of a certain time it is from and about a certain period as well as about a certain space even if virtual A particularly strong feature of these papers is that they envision space and time as complementary parameters of experience and not as conceptual opposites following the transfer of perspective through the whole century Departing from the late nineteenth century England s and Croatia s fictive spaces Ch 5 the topic moves via the American Southern Gothic focusing on Faulkner from the thirties to the early sixties Ch 6 via the post WWII perspectives on history probing the postmodern context of temporality Ch 7 to finally reach the contemporary era of post 9 11 space time Ch 8 The voyage from chapter five to eight is thus a journey through space and time that allows for some answers to the nature of reality of a variety of space times as conceived by both the authors of these essays as well as by the authors that these essays discuss The main goal of the editors has been to bring together different scientific traditions which can contribute complementary concerns and methodologies to the issues under exam from the literary and descriptive via the diachronic and typological explorations all the way to cognitive linguistic analyses bordering psycholinguistics and neuroscience One of the strengths of this volume thus lies in the diversity of perspectives articulated within it where the agreements but also the controversies and divergences demonstrate constant changes in society which in turn shapes our views of space time reality All this also suggests that science and literature are not above or apart from their culture but embedded within it and that there exists a strong relativistic interrelation between spatio temporal reality and culture The only hope to objectively envisage any if not all of the above is

The book Journey of the Roma through Time and Space marks one thousand years of exodus of Roma the forgotten children of India and focuses on the historical linguistic and cultural connection of Roma with their homeland India The Roma or Romani people representing the largest ethnic minority of Europe are traditionally nomadic itinerants who were widely known by the appellation Gypsies until the First World Romani Congress held at the suburb of south east London in April 1971 when the name Roma was officially adopted as the sole preferred ethnonym for the Roma Gypsy groups The immensely significant outcome of the First Congress was the unanimous consent to adopt the Roma flag embossed with the red chakra containing 16 spokes known as the Dharma Chakra in recognition of its Indian origin that was reaffirmed as the official emblem of the Roma people Despite the long passage of time and their perennial journey to different parts of the world Roma have managed to maintain a distinct identity by preserving certain aspects of their culture traditions and language The book manifests a vivid image of political economic and socio cultural situations and ethnic identity of Roma communities Roma have a long history of suffering discrimination persecution and exclusion in Europe European rulers unleashed hatred and discrimination against them They were for instance enslaved in Romanian principalities of Wallachia and Moldavia from 14th to 19th centuries They were also victims of genocide during the Second World War when about half million Roma were massacred along with Jews by the Nazi regime Their situation still remains critical as they continue to face discrimination and unequal access to vital services especially healthcare housing education and employment While there have been some initiatives taken by European Commission to encourage Roma inclusion and participation the limited progress has been reported in many European countries A wide array of activities undertaken by Centre for Roma Studies and Cultural Relations Antar Rashtriya Sahayog Parishad beckons a strong hope to Roma communities around the world This book is an imperative source for scholars researchers and students to research on myriad aspects of Roma communities University of Nebraska Studies in Language, Literature and Criticism, 1930

Travel, Time, and Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time Albrecht Classen, 2018-10-22 Research on medieval and early modern travel literature has made great progress which now allows us to take the next step and to analyze the correlations between the individual and space throughout time which contributed essentially to identity formation in many different settings The contributors to this volume engage with a variety of pre modern texts images and other documents related to travel and the individual's self orientation in foreign lands and make an effort to determine the concept of identity within a spatial framework often determined by the meeting of various cultures Moreover objects images and words can also travel and connect people from different worlds through books The volume thus brings together new scholarship focused on the interrelationship of travel space time and individuality which also includes of course women's movement through the larger world whether in concrete terms or through proxy travel via readings Travel here is also examined with respect to craftsmen's activities at various sites artists employment for many different projects all over Europe and elsewhere and in terms of metaphysical experiences catabasis

Literary Landscapes of Time Jobst Welge, Juliane Tauchnitz, 2022-11-07 The volume asks how the literatures of the Americas and the Caribbean present multiple or internally differentiated spaces and how these are distinguished or traversed by different temporalities The historical and post colonial experiences of these areas turns them into especially fertile ground for the exploration of the connections between landscape geography and historical temporal palimpsests as well as the specificities of literary form The contributions are dedicated to individual yet conceptually interconnected studies of staggered multiple non simultaneous temporalities in modern and contemporary literature The volume adopts a comparative perspective throughout and intends to foster the dialogue between the study of Latin American and Caribbean literatures in Spanish Portuguese French and English Therefore the individual essays are not grouped according to geographical or linguistic areas but follow a trajectory from spatiotemporal constellations of the 19th century to ruined catastrophic landscapes and the geopoetic inscriptions of time in regions The essays should appeal to all readers interested in World Literature Hemispheric Studies as well as temporal approaches to space and geography The Academy and Literature

,1890 Space, Time and Ways of Seeing Mundoli Narayanan,2021-08-23 This volume explores the constitutive role played by space in the performance of Kutiyattam The only surviving form of Sanskrit theatre Kutiyattam is distinctive in terms of its performance conventions and its unique culture of extensive elaboration and interpretation Drawing upon the concepts of phenomenology on the processes of perception particularly on the works of Edmund Husserl Martin Heidegger and Maurice Merleau Ponty it analyses the role of space in the communicative structures of performance of Kutiyattam and its contribution to the production of meaning in theatre especially in the context of contemporary theatre The book explores the theatrical event as a phenomenon that comes into existence through a triangular relationship among the ways of being of the performers the ways of seeing of the audience and the space which brings them together Based on this formulation Kutiyattam is approached as a theatre of elaboration made possible by the intimate proximal ways of seeing of the audience in the particular theatrical space of the k ttampala s the temple theatres where Kutiyattam has customarily been performed for more than five centuries This volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of cultural studies theatre and performance studies cultural anthropology phenomenology and South Asian studies Space, Time, and the Origins of Transcendental Idealism Matthew Rukgaber,2020-11-21 This book provides an account of the unity of Immanuel Kant s early metaphysics including the moment he invents transcendental idealism Matthew Rukgaber argues that a division between two worlds the world of matter force and space on the one hand and the world of metaphysical substances with inner states and principles preserved by God on the other is what guides Kant s thought Until 1770 Kant consistently held a conception of space as a force based material product of monads that are only virtually present in nature As Rukgaber explains

transcendental idealism emerges as a constructivist metaphysics a view in which space and time are real relations outside of the mind but those relations are metaphysically dependent on the subject The subject creates the simple now and here thus introducing into the intrinsically indeterminate and infinitely divisible continua of nature a metric with transformation rules that make possible all individuation and measurement Modern Writing and the Philosophy of Space and Time
