Executive Skills and Reading Comprehension Kelly B. Cartwright, 2015-07-13 How do K-12 students become self-regulated learners who actively deploy comprehension strategies to make meaning from texts? This cutting-edge guide is the first book to highlight the importance of executive skills for improving reading comprehension. Chapters review the research base for particular executive functions such as planning, organization, cognitive flexibility, and impulse control, and present practical skills-building strategies for the classroom. Detailed examples show what each skill looks like in real readers, and sidebars draw explicit connections to the Common Core State Standards. Reproducible planning and assessment forms can be downloaded and printed in a convenient 8 1/2 x 11 size.

Socioculturally Responsive Assessment Randy E. Bennett, Linda Darling-Hammond, Aneesha Badrinarayan, 2025-05-01 Socioculturally Responsive Assessment assembles the best available thinking from within and outside the educational measurement community about the theoretical foundations and systems-level policy implications of formal assessment programs designed to be socioculturally responsive. Synthesized from culturally responsive assessment design and practices, culturally relevant pedagogy, and funds of knowledge, universal design for learning, the learning sciences, and other literatures, this emerging concept affirms that students' learning and performance is inextricably tied to the social, cultural, and linguistic contexts in which they live and develop knowledge. Across four sections, this book provides an argument and initial evidence for impact on students, users, and assessment quality, offers guidance for implementation, and examines the potential limitations, pitfalls, barriers, and measurement issues that such programs will inevitably raise. Scholars, teaching faculty, test developers, and policymakers will come away with integral foundations, new assessment approaches, and a greater sense of the potential for positive impact that these assessments may afford.
