Human Virtuality and Digital Life Richard Frankel, Victor J. Krebs, 2021-08-12 Winner of the Grady Best Book Award 2022 and the Courage to Dream Book Prize 2023 from the Academy of the American Psychoanalytic Association This book is a psychoanalytic and philosophical exploration of how the digital is transforming our perception of the world and our understanding of ourselves Drawing on examples from everyday life myth and popular culture this book

argues that virtual reality is only the latest instantiation of the phenomenon of the virtual which is intrinsic to human being. It illuminates what is at stake in our understanding of the relationship between the virtual and the real, showing how our present technologies both enhance and diminish our psychological lives. The authors claim that technology is a pharmakon at the same time both a remedy and a poison, and in their writing exemplify a method that overcomes the polarization that compels us to regard it either as a liberating force or a dangerous threat in human life. The digital revolution challenges us to reckon with the implications of what is being called our posthuman condition, leaving behind our modern conception of the world as constituted by atemporal essences and reconceiving it instead as one of processes and change. The book's postscript considers the sudden plunge into the virtual effected by the 2020 global pandemic. Accessible and wide-reaching, this book will appeal not only to psychotherapists, psychoanalysts, and philosophers, but anyone interested in the ways virtuality and the digital are transforming our contemporary lives.

The Love Contract Steph Vizard, 2023-09-01. Can she pretend to love her neighbour? An award-winning modern rom-com for all fans of fake dating, enemies-to-lovers stories. I didn't know the guy next door. And given he was now my daughter's nanny and my fake boyfriend, I needed to find out. Single mum Zoe had the parenting thing all figured out with little Hazel, until a childcare drought derailed her plans to return to work. Enter Will, Zoe's nemesis and frustratingly handsome neighbour. When Will's boss mistakenly assumes Will is Hazel's father and insists he take parental leave, it seems like a simple white lie could get Zoe out of a jam and help Will to make partner at his law firm. But life with an adorable toddler and a growing attraction between Will and Zoe is never as tidy as their agreement's bullet points and dry clauses suggest. As they get deeper into the lie, the lines between truth and fiction blur. But Zoe's hiding a secret, and when it comes out, the consequences for all of them could be devastating. A witty, warm page-turner about love, friendship, and the glorious chaos of new motherhood. We're officially Steph Vizard's biggest fans. Ali Berg and Michelle Kalus. The Book Ninja. Crisp, sweet, and delicate. The Love Contract is pure indulgence. Vizard's writing sucks you in and wrings you out. An ideal cosy
