expression and freedom of the press and then goes on to explore the general issues concerning the regulation of the internet as a specific medium. It then turns to analysing the legal issues relating to the three most important gatekeepers whose operations directly affect freedom of expression. ISPs, search engines and social media platforms. Finally, it summarises the potential future regulatory and media policy directions. The book takes a comparative legal approach, focusing primarily on English and American regulations, case law and jurisprudential debates, but it also details the relevant international developments, Council of Europe, European Union as well as the jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights.

The Effects of Facebook Usage on Students' Academic Performance in Lusaka Norah Mpundu, 2022-09-22 Master's Thesis from the year 2022 in the subject Pedagogy, Media Pedagogy, grade 4 A, University of Zambia course, Master in Management strategy language English abstract. The study's primary goal is to ascertain how Facebook usage affects students' academic performance at the University of Zambia UNZA postgraduate Campus. Using a descriptive mixed method, this study analyzes a sample of five fifty three 533 students' survey responses collected using Microsoft Teams and lecturers' interviews on the effect of Facebook use among students' academic performance and measures these results against similar studies. Reasons for Facebook usage were found to play the most positive significant role in students' academic performance while Facebook usage and improved academic performance through Facebook use showed a negative correlation on students' academic performance. The study answers the correlation between why students use Facebook and their academic performance. Further studies are needed to establish how Facebook usage can be incorporated for educational use and social and educational purposes.

West Virginia Law Review, 2009 CDS Review, 2010 Impact of Facebook Usage on Students Academic Performance Fromsa Bedassa, 2014-07-29 Thesis M A from the year 2014 in the subject Business economics, Offline Marketing and Online Marketing language English abstract. Today, Facebook is considered as one of the most popular platforms for online social networking among youth and as many researches show university students. The purpose of this study is to assess the impact of social networking sites i.e. Facebook on students' academic performance. The study was carried out in Wollega University with regular undergraduate students in focus. A questionnaire was designed to assess impact of Facebook usage on Student and was administered to 384 students selected using stratified sampling technique. Variables identified are time spent on Facebook, addiction to Facebook and academic performance. The Pearson product moment correlation coefficient was used to examine the relationship between addiction to Facebook and time spent on Facebook and students' academic performance. Furthermore, a multiple linear regression was carried out to determine the relative contribution of addiction to Facebook and time spent on Facebook to students' academic performance. An analysis of the results was carried out using the SPSS software package. And the findings of this study shows that time spent on Facebook and addiction to it negatively and significantly affects students' academic performance.
