Deadly Press Emily Page, Just as Georgia Mason has gotten the family real estate business jump started in her hometown of Port Grace. Her moment of glee turns out to be short lived when a dead body is found on the property one morning by her sister Julie. The victim Mark Marin has been stabbed to death. Even more disturbing is that he's an employee of Port Grace newsman Charlie Weston. The same Charlie Weston who oddly enough was scheduled to interview Georgia about her family's reinvigorated Real Estate business that very same morning. Only now it's not so reinvigorated considering the areas been locked down as an official crime scene by local police Chief Harris. Looks like Georgia's hopes of officially re opening for business lie with uncovering the identity of Mark's killer. There's also a cloud of suspicion that lingers over her sister Julie considering she was the first one to discover the body. Georgia will need to call in every resource at her disposal if she wants to salt away a calamity that no one could've possibly predicted. It seems someone doesn't want Mason Real Estate to do business in this town. Which means the killer's motive could have family ties.
