undertaken by travelers who don't want to experience another culture through the windows of a tour bus. People are prepared to pay to volunteer and they are even willing to devote holiday time in order to get actively involved and help in environmental conservation projects as well as social projects. In Germany this new type of travel is slowly beginning to be considered as an emerging trend and was recognised by the press as early as end of 2006 and has been considerably strengthened since the end of 2007. This phenomenon of combining holidays with volunteer work has even developed a new term integrating both aspects: Voluntourism. In addition it has created an industry around this, the so called Voluntourism Industry. The numbers of socially responsible tourists as well as the opportunities available to them are increasing. The desire to help is matched by an Tourism Recreation Research, 2003.
