Head of Marketing
Avanza, Inc.

Dear Ashley,

Two months ago, I hit a goal I never thought I'd reach. I pushed SEO traffic to 20 million monthly visitors. One year ago, traffic for our four sites—all of which I manage through a team of 12 employees—reached at just 4 million per month. Upper management challenged me to lead the team toward doubling our traffic. We hit that goal in just six months, exceeding every our sales revenue forecast in the process.

I know your main upcoming challenge will be to grow revenue from your new website. With over seven years experience in SEO and social media marketing, and no concern when it pertains to staying on the leading edge of tech, I'm confident I can repeat the growth I achieved with SEO as your new Digital Marketing Manager.

In my current position, I successfully lead creative strategy and internal development teams. Specifically, I have:

- Doubled LinkedIn Marketing ROI by 42%.
- Reduced Cost Per Lead by 30%.
- Raised Landing Page Conversion Rates by 15%.

What impresses me most about your online marketing strategy is that you've managed to create a self-reliant team aligned with two basic key metrics only: traffic and conversions. This perfectly reflects my core professional values.

I'm adept at reading Google and user search intent, then translating that to measurable returns. Can we schedule a call to discuss ideas for growing your revenue by 25% in 2019?

Thank you for your time. I look forward to hearing from you.

Letters The Hyperink Team,2012-02-12 ABOUT THE BOOK If a resume is a window into your past work experience a cover letter is the tool you use to install it Cover letters were once just an after thought something most people used to simply regurgitate their resumes In fact it wasn t until the last decade that cover letters gained wide acceptance and importance Today not only is the cover letter just as important s a resume it can be the deciding factor in whether a hiring manager looks at your resume or throws it in the trash But how do you write the kind of amazing cover letter that will get you in the door How can you create a narrative of your professional experience that makes the HR person sit up and take notice The key is knowing how to present yourself It does not matter if you ve spent 30 years in the work force or are just entering it the fact remains that you need to learn to how convince someone else to interview you MEET THE AUTHOR The Hyperink Team works hard to bring you high quality engaging fun content If ever you have any questions about our products or suggestions for how we can make them better please don t hesitate to contact us Happy reading EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK You ve probably figured out a few mistakes to avoid already but you d probably be surprised at what many employers are turned off by when reading cover letters Lack of proofreading This is a no brainer but many people often miss them or don t bother to spell check before sending out the cover letter and resume It s always a good idea to ask a friend or family member to check your letter for spelling errors and typos to give you a fresh perspective Not including the name of the hiring manager If you don t know who is going to read your cover letter and resume try to find out When in doubt call the company and ask who the person in charge of that department is so you can target your letter appropriately Not writing to an audience Focus each letter on each employer According to Career Builder 44 percent of executives polled said it s common for applicants to use their cover letters to show they ve learned more about the job Doing so can give you an edge against the competition Failing to sell yourself If you undersell your skills and qualifications you won t make an impression on the reader Don t just talk about your accomplishments give concrete examples Regurgitating the resume Cover letters weren t meant as a tool to repeat everything that s in your resume It s a tool to build on it and an opportunity to correlate your experience with the job you re applying for Include any training classes awards and recognition you ve received in the past that might give you an edge over the competition Buy a copy to keep reading Mail and Internet Surveys Don A. proceeds to describe the ways to discover your perfect job. It's truly amazing how many of us lose sight of what we once were planning on doing with our career or worse yet have difficulty in describing what our ideal job would look like. I have spent my career listening to people say how dissatisfied they were with their jobs and careers. When I ask them what their passion is, they often cannot answer what that could be. Do you know what your passion is for an occupation? Are you living the life that you want? Are you employed in a position that is unfulfilling? Are you looking for a career change? Have you been a victim of downsizing? It has been said that the only true success in life is to have lived life in your own way. What would life be like if you lived your life in your own way? When was the last time that you thought about it? Did you have a dream like most of us as you were growing up to be or to do something and life got in the way? Wouldn't it be wonderful if you could get up tomorrow and go to work in a position where you would feel as though you are contributing something to the organization? Or being employed where you are appreciated for what you do? Or better yet work in a position that you know you are making a difference? Life is too short to spend time in a career that is not fulfilling. Too many people ask themselves what kind of job or career would be best for them. Why is it that we focus on the what rather than the how? Well, it is possible but you must make it happen. You can't wait for employers to come to you. You have to take charge of the direction of your career direction yourself. What is your rationale for reading this book? Could it be one of the following? You are searching for a more satisfying career. You have been downsized from a job. You are starting your first job search. Feelings like your opportunities for growth are limited where you are presently. There is a basic conflict of values on the job. You are a Baby Boomer and are now seeking a career that you hope will be more satisfying than what you have done so far in life. There has been a significant life event that is propelling you to make a career change. It could be something like a near death experience, divorce, turning 40 or 50, or physically unable to do the job that you have done in the past. You feel as though by changing jobs you will increase your earning power. You would like to pursue a dream or complete a mission. Maybe you were fired or laid off and need to make a career change. You have retired and now are seeking a rewarding career that you would enjoy more. You have climbed the corporate ladder and your priorities have changed. Often we allow corporations or organizations to manage our careers. In my private career coaching practice, I have helped literally thousands of individuals who have allowed corporations to totally control their lives and when they have been job eliminated or the company is acquired by another public traded corporation, they find themselves searching for a new direction with their career.
