Guide for the linguistic inclusion of migrants Lorna Carson,2022-06-01 Designed to create tangible materials which support the demands of this context the INCLUDEED Erasmus project aims to integrate migrants and refugees through one of Europe s greatest assets their languages This guide aims to become an ally of both those who wish to deepen their knowledge of the migration phenomenon and those who wish to facilitate the integration process of these groups Developed from the experience that the Universities of the consortium have in this field University of Salamanca University of Bologna University of Coimbra University of Heidelberg University of Poitiers and Trinity College Dublin this document emanates from a common effort as well as from the will to form an egalitarian society in terms of integration However this would not have been possible without the support of various non governmental organisations Red Cross ACCEM CEPAIM Foundation and Sierra Pambley Foundation which dedicated to the reception and integration of migrants and refugees throughout Europe have facilitated the identification of difficulties and enabled bridges to be built between different perspectives and joint efforts to converge in the same direction This guide addresses the various challenges that emerge during the integration period of these groups and proposes solutions that can help this complex process to be successful Designed as a useful vade mecum for the performance of the tasks of the various groups language teaching professionals or volunteers non governmental organisations and national and supranational public institutions it is a support tool that guides the actions of those involved in the process of linguistic integration of newly arrived people It provides them with a better understanding of the situation in which these groups find themselves and of the tools available to achieve this In short it is a document that seeks to bring together through informative but rigorous text the theoretical advances in this field and to offer various resources that can be put into practice in real life Finally we would like to emphasise that the contents of this guide should be understood as suggestions arising from the experience and commitment of those who have worked on its development and as a tool that will help to answer some of the questions that arise in the process of integration of migrant groups These questions are currently being answered thanks to the committed engagement of all those who are participating in this project In addition information from all the countries in the consortium can be found throughout these pages which broadens the perspective of most of the tools created so far making this guide truly an international reference work

Social Media Storytelling for Sustainable Destination Campaigns Jasna Potočnik Topler, Charlie Mansfield, 2024-01-08 This book is a Teaching Pack with links to slides which refer to specific pages in the Routledge textbook Travel Writing for Tourism and City Branding The monograph Travel Writing for Tourism and City Branding Urban Place Writing Methodologies was created from research and the teaching of travel writing at tourism and business schools across Europe The authors Dr Charlie Mansfield and Dr Jasna Potočnik Topler are grateful for the praise and the numerous expressions of gratitude received from teachers and practitioners since the publication of the book at the beginning of 2023 Nevertheless they wanted to further explain and facilitate certain processes approaches and questions to enhance the planning of lessons or practical tasks Therefore they have compiled a collection of additional tools and resources This handbook therefore aims to be additional support in teaching travel writing methodologies and in making advances in the methodology of dialogue as research Every place city or a tourism destination is a complex system that needs to be understood branded and managed as such It is essential to emphasise that each destination has its characteristics associated with geographical location culture and history which should be considered in destination marketing and the design of tourism products It is also crucial to be aware of the existence of various stakeholders at the destination and invite their collaboration The authors primarily aim to encourage creativity engagement with these stakeholders and the use of the proposed didactic methods in tourism and management studies
