Into a Light Both Brilliant and Unseen Malin Pereira, 2010-12-01 Malin Pereira's collection of eight interviews with leading contemporary African American poets offers an in depth look at the cultural and aesthetic perspectives of the post Black Arts Movement generation This volume includes unpublished interviews Pereira conducted with Wanda Coleman Yusef Komunyakaa Thylas Moss Harryette Mullen Cornelius Eady and Elizabeth Alexander as well as conversations with Rita Dove and Cyrus Cassells previously in print Largely published since 1980 each of these poets has at least four books Their influence on new generations of poets has been wide reaching The work of this group says Pereira is a departure from the previous generation's proscriptive manifestos in favor of more inclusive voices perspectives and techniques Although these poets reject a rigid adherence to a specific black aesthetic their work just as effectively probes racism stereotyping and racial politics Unlike Amiri Baraka's claim in Home that he becomes blacker and blacker positioning race as a defining essence these poets imagine a plurality of ideas about the relationship between blackness and black poetry They question the idea of an established literary canon defining black literature For these poets Pereira says the idea of home is found both in black poetry circles and in the wider transnational community of literature A Sarah Mills Hodge Foundation Publication The Columbia Granger's Index to African-American Poetry Nicholas Frankovich, David Larzelere, 1999 Responding to the enormous interest in African American literature Columbia University Press is publishing a Granger's R index devoted exclusively to poetry by African Americans To compile the Index to African American Poetry a team of consultants identified the best most widely available anthologies and volumes of collected and selected works The result this new index includes more than 11 000 poems by 659 poets The Civil Rights Reader Julie Buckner Armstrong, Amy Schmidt, 2009-01-01 This anthology of drama essays fiction and poetry presents a thoughtful classroom tested selection of the best literature for learning about the long civil rights movement Unique in its focus on creative writing the volume also ranges beyond a familiar 1954-68 chronology to include works from the 1890s to the present The civil rights movement was a complex ongoing process of defining national values such as freedom justice and equality In ways that historical documents cannot these collected writings show how Americans negotiated this process politically philosophically emotionally spiritually and creatively Gathered here are works by some of the most influential writers to engage issues of race and social justice in America including James Baldwin Flannery O'Connor Amiri Baraka and Nikki Giovanni The volume begins with works from
