Success Factors Countdown:

How to Cheat at IT Project Management Susan Snedaker, 2005-10-21 This book is written with the IT professional in mind. It provides a clear concise system for managing IT projects regardless of the size or complexity of the project. It avoids the jargon and complexity of traditional project management PM books. Instead it provides a unique approach to IT project management combining strategic business concepts project ROI strategic alignment etc with the very practical step by step instructions for developing and managing a successful IT project. It's short enough to be easily read and used but long enough to be comprehensive in the right places. Essential information on how to provide a clear concise system for managing IT projects regardless of the size or complexity of the project. As IT jobs are outsourced there is a growing demand for project managers to manage outsourced IT projects. Companion Web site for the book provides dozens of working templates to help readers manage their own IT projects.

Born too soon: decade of action on preterm birth World Health Organization, 2023-05-09 Every year 1 in 10 babies are born too soon. Preterm birth is the leading cause of under 5 child deaths and accounts for over one third of all newborn deaths. A preterm baby's chances of survival are starkly different based on where they are born. Newborns in sub-Saharan Africa and Southern Asia are 10 times more likely to die in their first month than newborns in high income countries. In 2012 an impressive global coalition of partners launched Born Too Soon. The Global Action Report on Preterm Birth setting a pathway for intensified advocacy and action on maternal and newborn health. Today there is much progress to celebrate especially in the care of preterm babies. However rates of preterm birth have barely shifted and the burden of preterm birth remains huge impacting babies families communities and whole societies through a staggering loss of human capital. At this juncture 10 years since the original report partners from over 60 organizations and 40 countries have come together again to develop Born Too Soon A Decade of Change for Preterm Birth. This report looks back at the progress and challenges of the past decade and grapples with contemporary challenges such as conflict climate change COVID 19 and the cost of living crisis. Born Too Soon elevates the voices of survivors and affected families and puts a strong emphasis on upholding their rights and providing respectful and family centered care. The report identifies priority investments and solutions needed at scale to accelerate action. Country examples demonstrate that progress is possible.

Innovations in Global Maternal Health: Improving Prenatal and Postnatal Care Practices Management Association, Information Resources, 2019-12-06 Whether they are in developed or developing nations all women are susceptible to dying from complications in childbirth. This work identifies important information related issues confronting management and provides frameworks to help managers think more effectively about information system related issues Memorandum - ,1964 Improving Maternal and Reproductive Health in South Asia Sameh El-Saharty,Sadia Chowdhury,Naoko Ohno,Intissar Sarker,2016-11-29 South Asia Region SAR has decreased maternal mortality ratio MMR by 65 percent between 1990 and 2013 which was the greatest progress among all world regions Such achievement implores the question What made SAR stand out against what is predicted by standard socioeconomic outcomes Improving Maternal and Reproductive Health in South Asia Drivers and Enablers identifies the interventions and factors that contributed to reducing MMR and improving maternal and reproductive health MRH outcomes in SAR In this study the analytical framework assumes that improving MRH outcomes is influenced by a multitude of forces from within and outside the health system and considers factors at the household and community levels as well as interventions in other sectors and factors in the enabling environment The analysis is based on a structured literature review of the interventions in SAR countries relevant international experience and review of the best available evidence from systematic reviews The focus of the analysis is mainly on assessing the effectiveness of interventions The findings from this study indicate that the most effective interventions that prevent maternal mortality are those that address the intra partum stage the point where most maternal deaths occur and include improving skilled birth attendance coverage increasing institutional delivery rates and scaling up access to emergency obstetric care There is also adequate evidence that investing in family planning to increase contraceptive use also played a key role during the inter partum phase by preventing unwanted pregnancies and thus averting the risk of maternal mortality in SAR countries Outside the programmatic interventions the levels of household income women s education and completion of secondary education of girls were also strongly correlated with improved MRH outcomes Also there is strong evidence that health financing schemes both demand and supply side and conditional cash transfer programs were effective in increasing the uptake of MRH services The study points out to many other interventions with different degrees of effectiveness The study also identified four major reasons for why SAR achieved this progress in MMR reduction The best practices and evidence of what works synthesized in this study provide an important way forward for low and middle income countries toward achieving the health related Sustainable Development Goals Quality Process Management Gabriel A. Pall,1987 Informationweek ,1997 Gas Engineering and Management ,1995 GLOBECOM '91 ,1991 Injustice in Urban Sustainability Panagiota Kotsila,Isabelle Anguelovski,Melissa García-Lamarca,Filka Sekulova,2022-11-08 This book uses a unique typology of ten core drivers of injustice to explore and question common assumptions around what urban sustainability means how it can be implemented and how it is manifested in or driven by urban interventions that hinge on claims of sustainability Aligned with critical environmental justice studies the book highlights the contradictions of urban sustainability in relation to justice It argues that urban neighbourhoods cannot be greener more sustainable and liveable unless their communities are strengthened by the protection of the right to housing public space infrastructure and healthy amenities Linked to the individual drivers ten short empirical case studies from across Europe and North America provide a systematic analysis of research policy and practice conducted under urban sustainability agendas in cities such as Barcelona Glasgow Athens Boston and Montr al and show how social and environmental justice is or is not being taken into account By doing so the book uncovers the risks of continuing urban sustainability agendas while ignoring and therefore perpetuating systemic drivers of inequity and injustice operating within and outside of the city Accessibly written for students in urban studies critical geography and planning this is a useful and analytical synthesis of issues relating to urban sustainability environmental and social justice The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003221425> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Funded by Universitat Aut noma de Barcelona
