Suicide And The Inner Voice Risk Assessment Treatment And Case Management:

Suicide and the Inner Voice Robert Firestone,1997 This detailed text contains case histories which provide an unparalleled depth of emotional reality in this invaluable guide to assessing risk and designing treatment for depressed and suicidal patients

What Is Democracy? Alain Touraine,David Macey,1997-04-04 In this sequel to A Critique of Modernity Alain Touraine questions the social and cultural content of democracy today At a time when state power is being increasingly eroded by the economic might of transnational capital what possible value can we ascribe to a democratic idea that is defined merely as a set of guarantees against the totalitarian state If democracy is to survive in the postcommunist world Touraine argues it must accomplish two urgent goals It must somehow protect the power of the nation state at the same time as it limits that power for only the state has sufficient means to counterbalance the global corporate wielders of money and information and it must reconcile social diversity with social unity and individual liberty with integration This is not merely a philosophical problem but a dilemma whose resolution will dramatically affect the immediate future of people everywhere If we want a resolution in democracy s favor then it is time in Touraine s view for us to redefine democracy in terms of active intervention rather than mere passive institution To preserve the power and effectiveness of our states and societies we must make visible strides and soon away from a politics of particularity and toward the integration and balancing of women and minorities of immigrants of rich and poor If our states become too weakened too debased by the politics of competing identities and interest groups we will one day find ourselves without the means to protect the very values we believe we are fighting to uphold

Suicide and the Inner Voice Robert W. Firestone,1998-12-01 What's the Good of Counselling & Psychotherapy? Colin Feltham,2002-12-26 Presents the case for psychological therapy as seen by those regarded as being at the leading edge of practice

Counselling Suicidal Clients Andrew Reeves,2010-02-16 I have worked in psychiatry as well as in private practice with suicidal people I found it poignant and true when Reeves points out that people do not have to be mad to be suicidal and that assessing suicide potential fundamentally lies in engaging with the suicidal client at a deeper relational level So true This thoroughly researched book is written with passion and compassion It will be a valuable addition to the libraries of therapists and anyone else who works with suicidal people

Therapy Today July 2010 A uniquely accessible comprehensive and practical guide Essential reading for counsellors and psychotherapists and all helping professionals who work with clients at risk of suicide Mick Cooper Professor of Counselling University of Strathclyde A must read for counsellors of all experience levels offering sound practical strategies alongside thought provoking case studies and discussion points Reeves addresses this difficult topic with depth breadth and integrity Excellent

Denise Meyer developer and lead author of www.studentdepression.org Andrew Reeves brings together his experience as a social worker counsellor and academic to explore the essential elements in working with suicidal clients His openness and integrity in writing about this complex topic creates a valuable resource for reflective practice

Barbara Mitchels Solicitor and Director of Watershed

Counselling Service Devon Counselling Suicidal Clients addresses the important professional considerations when working with clients who are suicidal The bigger picture including legal and ethical considerations and organisational policy and procedures is explored as is to how practitioners can work with the dynamics of suicide potential in the therapeutic process The book is divided into six main parts The changing context of suicide The prediction prevention model policy and ethics The influence of the organisation The client process The practitioner process The practice of counselling with suicidal clients The book also includes chapters on the discourse of suicide suicide and self injury and self care for the counsellor It is written for counsellors and psychotherapists and for any professional who uses counselling skills when supporting suicidal people

Beyond Death Anxiety Robert Firestone, Joyce Catlett, 2009-07-20 This book fruitfully serves those looking to apply Ernest Becker's ideas psychotherapeutically in individual counseling or in group therapy A capstone to Robert Firestone's 50 years of work in psychotherapy psychoanalysis and psychiatry and to the numerous books written by these authors Firestone and Catlett show how to apply the themes and implications of the ideas of Ernest Becker in everyday life Their basic premise is that accepting death is part of developing an affirming and meaningful experience of life Contributing to the credibility of their presentation is the wealth of clinical evidence and personal experience Firestone and Catlett incorporate The Ernest Becker Foundation Fascinating and an enjoyable read steeped in well researched and relevant psychological and sociological perspectives applicable to all social studies areas Carol Lloyd University of Chichester Firestone and Catlett's work is a marvelous achievement This volume is both innovative and intrepid Firestone and Catlett challenge prevailing psychoanalytic views on death and they demolish many of the accepted canons of thanatology and existential psychology This is required reading for anyone who purports to talk about death Jerry Piven PhD Author of Death and Delusion A Freudian Analysis of Mortal Terror A towering synthesis of personal and clinical wisdom about death with a superb overview of the psychology of death and death anxiety Dr Firestone draws on the best of the existential humanistic as well as the psychoanalytic thinkers to address a flourishing path toward self realization Kirk J Schneider PhD Author Existential Integrative Psychotherapy and Awakening to Awe From the Foreword Firestone and Catlett's groundbreaking volume assists mental health practitioners in helping their clients learn to accept and face their mortality They describe the many defenses of death anxiety that keep individuals from achieving personal fulfillment and also suggest methods to cope directly with fears of death an approach that ironically can lead to more satisfaction more freedom and a greater appreciation for the gift of life This book examines the many destructive consequences of death anxiety including introversion depression and withdrawal from life Throughout the book the authors demonstrate the importance of achieving what they call life affirming death awareness Key topics include The dawning awareness of death and its impact on the developing child Literal and symbolic defenses against death anxiety Separation theory and the fantasy bond Challenging the defenses that interfere with living fully Microsuicide the death of the spirit Breaking with limiting religious dogma and cultural worldviews With this book mental health practitioners and their clients will be able to better understand death awareness overcome the defenses against death anxiety and ultimately lead richer more fulfilling lives      Death Attitudes and the Older Adult Adrian Tomer, 2018-10-24 This innovative and informative new text bridges the fields of gerontology and thanatology      Assessment, Treatment, and Prevention of Suicidal Behavior Robert I Yufit, David Lester, 2005 Understanding of suicidal behavior has become more nuanced than it was years ago and it has become apparent that no one theory and no one therapy can fill all the many manifestations of self destructive feelings and behaviors from the foreword Editors psychologists Yufit Northwestern U Medical School and Lester Richard Stockton College of New Jersey both are specialists in suicide briefly introduce 18 contributions a few of their own aimed at bringing clinicians up to date on assessment and a myriad of treatment and prevention approaches The special issues section addresses the legacy of suicide coping in schools college students and suicide terrorism      By Their Own Young Hand Keith Hawton, Karen Rodham, 2006-06-15 The authors identify the risk and protective factors for self harm exploring why some adolescents with suicidal thoughts go on to harm themselves while others do not what motivates some young people to seek help and whether distressed teenagers feel they receive the support they need      Cognition and Suicide Thomas E. Ellis, 2006 Although substantial resources have been expended on suicide research and prevention suicide science remains in its infancy This book brings together an impressive cast to bridge the gap between cognitive research and cognitive behavioral practice relating to suicide      Dealing with Challenges in Psychotherapy and Counseling Christiane Brems, 2000 This unique book provides exactly such important schemata to assist both novice and experienced practitioners in responding effectively and confidently Jacket      Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1997      Sex and Love in Intimate Relationships Robert Firestone, Lisa A. Firestone, Joyce Catlett, 2006 In clear language and conceptualization and through the liberal use of case material from therapy sessions the authors show how individuals can be helped to overcome these challenges and become physically and emotionally closer to their partners BOOK JACKET      The Journal of Psychohistory, 2007      A Handbook for Developing Multicultural Awareness Paul Pedersen, 2000 This book examines multicultural awareness training through a three stage developmental sequence as a primary prevention strategy in counseling It attempts to lead readers to find examples of how multicultural awareness can make their counseling task easier rather than harder and can increase their satisfaction in working with clients from other cultures Chapter 1 highlights the three stage model of Awareness Knowledge Skill Chapter 2 details some of the rules to follow in a multicultural perspective to stimulate discussion Chapter 3 discusses the field of alternative therapies Chapter 4 covers the process of developing a cultural identity Chapter 5 presents culture as a pattern narrative or story about who we are and where we came from rather than focusing on current research in the field Chapter 6 focuses on what is not known about multiculturalism rather than focusing on current research in the field Chapter 7 looks at ethical guidelines for counselors Chapter 8 looks at how reframing conflict into cultural categories makes conflict easier to manage Chapter 9 reviews the

Triad Training Model as a promising training approach Chapter 10 considers how multiculturalism had a powerful impact on the field of counseling and how this impact is increasing in importance This book also attempts to guide readers toward specific publications and resources already available on developing multicultural awareness Contains 347 references JDM

Exceptional Human Experience ,2000      Canadian Journal of Psychiatry ,1998      The Best Books for Academic Libraries: Medicine ,2002 Books recommended for undergraduate and college libraries listed by Library of Congress Classification Numbers      Fatal Freedom Thomas Szasz,1999-09-30 By maintaining statutes that determine that voluntary death is not legal our society is forfeiting one of its basic freedoms and causing the psychiatric medical establishment to treat individuals in a manner that is disturbingly inhumane His work asks and clearly intelligently answers some of the most significant ethical questions of our time Is suicide a voluntary act or an act of mental illness Should physicians be permitted to prevent it Should they be authorized to abet it BOOK JACKET      The Indian Journal of Social Work ,1999
