Suits Me The Double Life Of Billy Tipton:

Suits Me Diane Wood Middlebrook, 1998 The jazz pianist Billy Tipton was born in Oklahoma City as Dorothy Tipton but almost nobody knew the truth until the day he died This jazz era biography evokes the rich popular music history of the Great Depression and reads like a detective story 60 photos The Visible Self Joanne B. Eicher, Sandra Lee Evenson, 2023-10-19

All over the world people get dressed mostly for the same reasons Why then do we look so different from each other The answers lie in the constellations of factors that contribute to the human condition from climate to conformity gender expression to race and ethnicity Beginning with the body as the organizing principle around which to study dress this 50th anniversary edition of The Visible Self makes sense of humans as biological social and aesthetic creatures based on cross disciplinary concepts and examples It explores the daily act of dress in cultures around the world using the word dress to describe the wide variety of behaviors connected to the act of adorning our bodies or not through the use of clothing modifications and or supplements Political economies are addressed holistically to understand the global world through contemporary topics such as racism and how dress can be used to sustain or rebel against dominant structures With current examples and relevant readings in every chapter the authors convey how dress can achieve standards of appearance and social ideals relate to individuality and conformity in fashion and communicate identity and character in the arts Exploring the global mash up of fashion dress culture production and sustainability including life in a post pandemic world The Visible Self offers a powerful understanding of the way we look and how we look at others New to this Edition Focus on the body as the organizing principle in the study of dress including additional insight on fashion and using this concept to define the target customer Investigation of current issues such as race and the post pandemic world Updated readings at the end of each chapter with discussion questions that directly connect chapter concepts to reading content Activities that apply chapter concepts to design product development merchandising and everyday life STUDIO Features Include Links to third party video clips to help visualize how dress is used to identify the self Self assessment quizzes to test yourself on what you have just read Flashcards of key terms and concepts covered in the book Instructor Resources Instructor's Guide to help incorporate the text into your classroom Test Bank to highly key concepts and test student comprehension on those concepts PowerPoint Slides for every chapter

In a Queer Time and Place J. Jack Halberstam, 2005-01-01 The first full length study of transgender representations in art fiction film video and music In his first book since the critically acclaimed Female Masculinity J. Jack Halberstam examines the significance of the transgender body in a provocative collection of essays on queer time and space He presents a series of case studies focused on the meanings of masculinity in its dominant and alternative forms especially female and trans masculinities as they exist within subcultures and are appropriated within mainstream culture In a Queer Time and Place opens with a probing analysis of the life and death of Brandon Teena a young transgender man who was brutally murdered in small town Nebraska After looking at mainstream representations of the transgender body as exhibited in the media frenzy surrounding this highly visible case and the Oscar winning film based on Brandon's story Boys Don't Cry Halberstam turns his attention to the cultural and artistic production of queers themselves. He examines the transgender gaze as rendered in small art house films like By Hook or By Crook as well as figurations of ambiguous embodiment in the art of Del LaGrace Volcano, Jenny Saville, Eva Hesse, Shirin Neshat and others. He then exposes the influence of lesbian drag king cultures upon hetero male comic films such as Austin Powers and The Full Monty and finally points to dyke subcultures as one site for the development of queer counterpublics and queer temporalities. Considering the sudden visibility of the transgender body in the early twenty first century against the backdrop of changing conceptions of space and time In a Queer Time and Place is the first full length study of transgender representations in art, fiction, film, video and music. This pioneering book offers both a jumping off point for future analysis of transgenderism and an important new way to understand cultural constructions of time and place.

Exploring Complicity Michael Neu, Robin Dunford, Afxentis Afxentiou, 2016-12-15 Questions of complicity emerge within a range of academic disciplines and everyday practices. Using a wide range of case studies this book explores the concept of and cases of complicity in an interdisciplinary context. It expands orthodox understandings of the concept by including the notion of structural complicity revealing seemingly inconsequential everyday forms of complicity examining different kinds and degrees of individual and collective complicity and introducing complicity as a lens through which to analyse and critically reflect upon social structures and relations. It also explores complicity through a series of cases emerging from a variety of academic disciplines and professional practices. Its various chapters reflect on amongst other things the complicity of politicians, self-proclaimed feminists, health care workers, fictional characters, social movement activists and academic defenders of torture.

Queer Tidalectics Emilio Amideo, 2021-06-15 In Queer Tidalectics Emilio Amideo investigates how Anglophone writers James Baldwin, Jackie Kay, Thomas Glave and Shani Mootoo employ the trope of fluidity to articulate a Black queer diasporic aesthetics. Water recurs as a figurative and material site to express the Black queer experience within the diaspora, a means to explore malleability and overflowing sexual gender and racial boundaries. Amideo triangulates language, the aquatic and affect to delineate a Black queer aesthetics, one that uses an idiom of fluidity, slipperiness and opacity to undermine and circumvent gender normativity and the racialized heteropatriarchy embedded in English. The result is an outline of an ever expanding affective archive of experiential knowledge. Amideo engages and extends the work of Black queer studies, Oceanic studies, ecocriticism, phenomenology and new materialism through the theorizations of Sara Ahmed, Omise'eke Natasha Tinsley, M. Jacqui Alexander, Édouard Glissant, José Esteban Muñoz and Edward Kamau Brathwaite among others. Ambitious in scope and captivating to read Queer Tidalectics brings Caribbean writers like Glissant and Brathwaite into queer literary analysis, a major scholarly contribution.
