Summertime A Novella:

Summertime Adrienne Thompson, 2016-03-29 An unlikely journey an unlikely love J Nay Walker is a talented singer driven toward success by a promise she made to her late mother One gloomy day on the tail of some disappointing news tragedy strikes threatening not only to derail her plans but to end her life As a result she soon finds herself on an unlikely journey but is she ready for an unlikely love Excerpt Would it be too forward of me to ask if you already have a beau lovely songbird I looked up at him willed myself not to stare at his lips No I mean no I don't His eyes widened in surprise The men around here must be dumb as rocks Letting a fine looking woman like you walk around here alone like this I might just have to do something to fix that I placed my hand on my chest Something like what Something like making you my woman I shook my head Can't do that You're just passing through He nodded slightly as he reached up and touched my cheek Well if you're my girl he whispered I guess you'll have to come with me or I'll have to stay Then he leaned in and softly kissed me on the lips Every nerve muscle and blood vessel in my body vibrated and my knees buckled ever so slightly Dizzy I said softly He backed away from me with an intoxicated look in his eyes Call me John I like the way you say it John He smiled Yeah I like that Dizzy you holding up the game man a voice shouted from upstairs He leaned in close to me again and smiled Damn girl you smell good I'm not wearing any perfume I didn't think you were      Summertime Maureen McCoy, 1988-03

Summertime on the Ranch Carolyn Brown, 2021-04-27 City meets country in this brand new novella from beloved bestselling author Carolyn Brown This city girl is about to learn a thing or two about bad boy cowboys Becca McKay has been in Nashville doing everything she can to land a country music contract but when her grandmother Greta gets sick Becca packs up her twelve year old SUV and heads back to Terral Oklahoma to help take care of Greta Once she arrives she quickly gets hired at the O'Donnells watermelon wine making business Dalton Wilson has been the foreman on the O'Donnells ranch for a couple of years now He's thirty years old and has a reputation for being a bad boy cowboy but deep in his heart he is more than ready to settle down It's love at first sight for Dalton but convincing Becca that he is ready to hang up his bad boy spurs is quite another thing until the night they both have too much watermelon wine and open their hearts The most difficult thing about reading a Brown book is putting it down Fresh Fiction Every time I pick up a book by Carolyn Brown I find characters and places I want to visit time and time again Thoughts in Progress      J. M. Coetzee's Politics of Life and Late Modernism in the Contemporary Novel Marc Farrant, 2024-03-05 Surveying the full breadth of J M Coetzee's career as both academic and novelist this book argues for the necessity of rethinking his profound indebtedness to literary modernism in terms of a politics of life Isolating a particular strain of late modernism epitomised by Kafka and Beckett Farrant claims that Coetzee's writings consistently demonstrate an agonistic engagement with the concept of life that involves an entanglement of politics and ethics which supersedes the singular theoretical frameworks often applied to Coetzee such as postcolonialism posthumanism and animal studies Running throughout his engagement with questions of modernity and colonialism storytelling and life writing human and non human life religion and post Enlightenment subjectivity Coetzee s politics of life yield a new literary cosmopolitanism for the twenty first century a powerful commentary on our interrelatedness that emphasises finitude and contingency as fundamental to the way we live together Trauma, Memory, and Narrative in the Contemporary South African Novel ,2012-01-01 The contributions to this volume probe the complex relationship of trauma memory and narrative By looking at the South African situation through the lens of trauma they make clear how the psychic deformations and injuries left behind by racism and colonialism cannot be mended by material reparation or by simply reversing economic and political power structures Western trauma theories as developed by scholars such as Caruth van der Kolk Herman and others are insufficient for analysing the more complex situation in a postcolony such as South Africa This is because Western trauma concepts focus on the individual traumatized by a single identifiable event that causes PTSD Post Traumatic Stress Disorder What we need is an understanding of trauma that sees it not only as a result of an identifiable event but also as the consequence of an historical condition in the case of South Africa that of colonialism and more specifically of apartheid For most black and coloured South Africans the structural violence of apartheid s laws were the existential condition under which they had to exist The living conditions in the townships pass laws relocation and racial segregation affected great parts of the South African population and were responsible for the collective traumatization of several generations This trauma however is not an unclaimed and unclaimable experience Postcolonial thinkers who have been reflecting on the experience of violence and trauma in a colonial context writing from within a Fanonian tradition have on the contrary believed in the importance of reclaiming the past and of transcending mechanisms of victimization and resentment so typical of traumatized consciousnesses Narration and the novel have a decisive role to play here

Kagerou Daze, Vol. 8 (light novel) JIN (SHIZEN NO TEKI P),2018-12-18 It was a certain summer day when they met It was a day that would go on for a long time forever As their enemies stood in their path members of the Mekukashi dan fell one after another After temporarily stalling their opponents Azami came up with a radical plan to seal them away but it could only succeed at the cost of the life of one of their own As their enemies began advancing again what fate with the Mekukashi dan choose
