Britain, the US and China's Anti-Soviet Stance in the Cold War Bruno Pierri,2023-08-04 This book shows how international trade was a key part of the classic Western policy of containment towards the Soviet Union in the Cold War in the late 1970s Trade and containment may summarise the new relation that communist China moulded with the capitalistic West in the late 1970s Ideology had become less important and a rapprochement between the PRC People's Republic of China and the Western powers over trade with the purpose of isolating and weakening the common Russian rival was practically unavoidable Within a relatively short span of time the balance of power in the Indo Pacific area had been reversed Simply put Beijing's market was too big to be ignored and the Atlantic allies collaborated sometimes even competing with each other to allow China access to the centres of world finance However the Western powers had not realised that Beijing would never pursue alignment with them On the contrary the increased trading and financial linkage with capitalistic countries gave China room to manoeuvre enabling it to play the Western states off against each other This book will be of much interest to students of Cold War Studies Chinese history foreign policy and international relations California.
