Christianity and Controversies over Homosexuality in Contemporary Africa Ezra Chitando,Adriaan van Klinken,2016-05-12 Issues of homosexuality are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them Complementing the companion volume Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa this book investigates Christian politics and discourses on homosexuality in sub Saharan Africa The contributors present case studies from various African countries from Nigeria to South Africa and from Cameroon to Uganda focusing on Pentecostal Catholic and mainline Protestant churches They critically examine popular Christian theologies that perpetuate homophobia and discrimination but they also discuss contestations of such discourses and emerging alternative Christian perspectives that contribute to the recognition of sexual diversity social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa

Transnational Religious Spaces Philip Clart,Adam Jones,2020-07-06 This volume bringing together work by scholars from Europe East Asia North America and West Africa investigates transnational religious spaces in a comparative manner by juxtaposing East Asian and African examples It highlights flows of ideas actors and organizations out of into or within a given continental space These flows are patterned mainly by colonialism or migration The book also examines cases where the transnational space in question encompasses both East Asia and Africa notably in the development of Japanese new religions in Africa Most of the studies are located in the present a few go back to the late nineteenth century The volume is rounded off by Thomas Tweed s systematic reflections on categories for the study of transnationalism his chapter Flows and Dams critically weighs the metaphorical language we use to think speak and write about transnational religious spaces

Visions of the Good Life ,2025-11-13 There is something wrong with us and the world we find ourselves in In the Christian tradition the concept of God s salvation describes the divine intervention to overcome this brokenness However such language might easily be misunderstood in the increasingly secular West To make the reality of the doctrine of salvation understandable relevant and attractive for Europeans in the West we might begin to think of it more in terms of relationship well being and wholeness Using a Biblical term salvation is about the Shalom of the Reign of God This volume explores the lived salvation practices of faith communities and missions and their conceptualisations in the West how is the good life perceived and practiced Contributors are Clive Marsh Jan Martijn Abrahamse Dejan A daji K Francis Adebayo Philip Bartholom Janel Kragt Bakker Nigel Rooms Karen Zwijze Koning Hans Schaeffer Berdine van den Toren Lekkerkerker Jack Barentsen Chris James Sake Stoppels Annemieke de Jonge Bert Roor Evelien van Duffelen Harvey Kwiyan James Butler Kathy Ross Ross Lockhart and Stefan Paas
