1919-1924 Jean Toomer, 2006 Mark Whalen s compilation offers a vital document for understanding the contexts intellectual debates and tensions undergirding Toomer s work including his simultaneous feelings of attraction to and estrangement from rural southern life the influence of technology on race and urban existence in America and the contradictory pulls of folk culture and modernist experimentation The collection also charts the motives underlying Toomer s abandonment of the style that distinguished Cane and his growing fascination with the teachings of the mystic G I Gurdjieff in 1924 BOOK JACKET attractive to North American writers such as Susan Warner and L M Montgomery who responded to Jane Eyre as part of the Cinderella tradition Heiniger contrasts the reactions of these white women writers with that of Hannah Crafts whose Jane Eyre influenced The Bondswoman s Narrative rejects the Cinderella model Instead Heiniger shows Crafts creates a heroic female bildungsroman that critiques fairytale narratives from the viewpoint of the obscure oppressed workers who remain forever outside the tales of wonder produced for middle class consumption Heiniger concludes by demonstrating how Bront s middle class American readers projected the self rise ethic onto Jane Eyre mirroring the novel in nineteenth century narratives of American identity formation      The Modern Review Ramananda Chatterjee,1912 Includes section Reviews and notices of books      Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library.
