Sunday Lesson For Sunday June 15 2014:

Diary of a Dying Girl Mallory Smith,2014-05-07 This collection of one girl's real unflinching diary entries about slowly dying of a terminal illness is an unparalleled exploration of the human spirit and what it means to truly live. Many of the feelings I write about are too difficult to share while I'm alive so I'm keeping everything in my journal password protected until the end. Mallory Smith was no ordinary girl and this is no ordinary story. At age three Mallory was diagnosed with cystic fibrosis, a disease that attacks the internal organs and would eventually kill her. Despite living on borrowed time, Mallory pursued her passions: volleyball, writing, the environment, her boyfriend, family, and friends. Most importantly, every day she chose to embody the mantra "live happy." Mallory also had her struggles: everything from love and sex to living with illness and just being a human on this planet. And she chronicled every bit of it, writing thousands of diary entries before her death in her twenties. This is the poignant true story of a young woman who refused to be defined by chronic illness. Her light and her life are shared here in her own words to encourage everyone to live life to the fullest as she did even as she was dying.

Unlocking Your Creativity Doreen Marcial Poreba,2015-05-05 Creativity is the engine that drives personal self-fulfillment and business innovation. The busier and the more complicated life gets, the more difficult it is to relax and let creative ideas flow. Idiot's Guides: Unlocking Your Creativity helps readers get past the barriers that keep them from being creative at work and in their daily lives. Helpful success stories are also included.

Pud Galvin Brian Martin,2016-09-29 Despite his outstanding pitching record, James Francis "Pud" Galvin (1856-1902) was largely forgotten after his premature death. During his 18-year career with Pittsburgh, Buffalo, and St. Louis, he was one of the best-paid players in the game but died penniless. The diminutive hurler was the first to reach 300 wins, and only four pitchers have amassed more. A determined researcher documented Galvin's record decades after his death, and he was enshrined in the Hall of Fame in 1965 with 365 wins. This book is the first comprehensive biography of Galvin and his use of a testosterone-based concoction with eye-popping results, which earned him newfound attention as a pioneer of performance-enhancing drugs.
