Shows churches of every size how to revive and expand their ministries breaking through barriers and growing into the future On Keeping My Mouth Shut in Sunday School James Lutzweiler, 2020-06-12 This book is simply a written Sunday school lesson rather than the oral variety The primary topic is war and the relationship of a Christian to it While someday war shall be studied no more that day has not yet arrived This book chronicles with specific examples how a few Christians like Rev J J Taylor Alvin York Vernon Grounds Franz J Gerstter and the author himself have approached the topic Dietrich Bonhoeffer also makes a guest appearance as do Tolstoy Gandhi and MLK The book does not advocate a pure pacifism The author has not solved all the problems associated with that viewpoint and does not know anyone who has But it does argue for peacemaking the likes of which is addressed by Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount and by St Paul who urges us to wrestle with principalities and powers i.e. ideas and not to wrestle with flesh and blood This the author has tried to do within these peacemaking pages and the comparative safety of his laptop and life in bucolic and pastoral Jamestown North Carolina

Teaching in the Life of the Church Darin R. Clements, 2025-04-28 I chose to publish my dissertation for two reasons First though quite narrow in scope as good qualitative research should be this research makes a modest contribution to the growing scholarship on Christianity in Cambodia Second this research makes an empirical contribution to the field of nonformal Christian Education from an Asian context in which Christians are a tiny minority As my literature review indicates the field of nonformal CE is dominated by a North American point of view which ironically is facing a general breakdown of historical CE institutions like Sunday school While much of the literature is useful in the Majority World it does not take into account the education levels educational contexts and social dynamics of places like Cambodia For example the findings from my cases indicate that nonformal CE in Cambodia has more in common with the Sunday school movement in the 19th century than with the functions organizational structures and teaching approaches discussed in current literature As I have presented these ideas in class feedback from students has consistently confirmed that my findings resonate with contexts across Asia Pacific Sunday School That Really Works, Responds, and Excels Steve R. The Political Economy of Heaven and Earth in Ghana Charles Prempeh,2023-09-30 In March 2017 the president of Ghana Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo announced his intention to build a national cathedral to the people of Ghana The announcement elicited watertight counter arguments that morphed into two a priori re litigated assumptions First Ghana is a secular country and second religion and state formation are incompatible Informed by a frustrating paradox of an overwhelming religious presence and concurrent pervasive corruption in the country public conversation reached a cul de sac of conviction without compromising In The Political Economy of Heaven and Earth in Ghana Charles Prempeh deploys the national cathedral as an entry point to provide both interdisciplinary and autoethnographic understanding of religion and politics The book shows the capacity of religion when properly cultivated and curated as a worldview to answer the why questions of life will foster personal moral collective and ontological responsibility All this is needed to stem the tide against corruption commodity fetishism environmental degradation illegal mining galamsey heritage destruction and religious exploitation Prempeh recuperates a historical fact about the mutual inclusivity between religion and politics politics helping to manage differences while religion provides a transcendental reason for unity to be forged for human flourishing Separating the two is therefore ahistorical and an obvious threat to the intangible virtues that answers why and how questions for public governance The Successful Sunday School and Teachers Guidebook Elmer L.
