The Restoration Of Christian Culture:

The Restoration of Christian Culture John Senior, 1998-06-01 Christian Culture Everest Ezech, 2011-03 Culture is the totality of a people's way of life. It is the sum of those distinctive behaviors that differentiate a group of people from other groups. Culture is the thing that gives people a name and identity. The character of God also referred to in this book as Christian culture is God's spiritual accent. Communication is often made very difficult when the people involved have different tonal accents. In the same way, communication or relationship with God is made difficult if not impossible when believers possess behavioral accents different from that of their God. This book, Christian Culture: The Accent of God, will take you on an explorative journey of the character of God and much more things and will challenge you to model your life after God's character. To purchase this book, go to www.xulonpress.com, www.thespiritborn.org, www.amazon.com, Barnes and Noble, and most major Christian book stores. Watch out for another book by this author, The Violent Takers, to be released soon. About The Author: Brother Everest Ezech was ordained a Minister of the Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ in 2002 at God Is In Control Church, Waldorf, Maryland, USA, under the umbrella of Pure Love International Church. He has been involved in ministry work since 1993 and between 1999 and 2003 was the coordinator of an outreach program, The Church In Your Room, which aimed to reach the unchurched right in their rooms every Sunday with customized church services. He is a graduate of both the University of Nigeria, Nsukka, Nigeria, and the School of Healing, Evangelism, and Ministry, SOHEM, Nsukka, Nigeria. Brother Ezech is married and blessed with three children and currently fellowships at Harvest Life Changers Church, Woodbridge, Virginia, USA, under the dynamic leadership of Bishop Lyle Dukes and Pastor Deborah Dukes. Reimagining the Catholic University with Pieper, Newman, and Dawson Leonardo Franchi, Timothy P. O'Malley, 2025-10-23 This compact volume argues compellingly for a classical understanding of leisure within the context of Catholic universities and explores how a critically nuanced reading of the work of philosopher Josef Pieper, theologian St. John Henry Newman, and cultural historian Christopher Dawson can reframe debates over the nature of Catholic universities. Chapters facilitate a refreshed understanding of how leisure, as proposed by Pieper, potentially promotes a liberal humanistic vision of the Catholic university as a site of integral human development. In so doing, the book fundamentally questions and re-evaluates the purpose of a university, reframing the idea of what it constitutes both in theory and practice. This approach enables institutions to remain open to diverse intellectual traditions while confidently drawing upon their own rich heritage to create genuinely hospitable academic communities. Ultimately, the book offers a vision for reforming Catholic higher education that challenges the increasingly utilitarian and market-driven models dominating contemporary university life. Grounded in solid historical foundations while offering innovative thinking around Catholic university reform, the book will be of interest to scholars, researchers, and postgraduate students with an interest in Catholicism and the philosophy of education. Those more broadly interested in exploring the intersection between education, philosophy, and religion will also find the volume of use. The

Historic Reality of Christian Culture Christopher Dawson,1960 Dust Bound for Heaven Reinhard Hütter,2012-10-01 In Dust Bound for Heaven Reinhard Hütter shows how Thomas Aquinas's view of the human being as dust bound for heaven weaves together elements of two questions without fusion or reduction Does humanity still have an insatiable thirst for God that sends each person on an irrepressible religious quest that only the vision of God can quench Or must the human being living after the fall become a new creation in order to be readied for heaven Hütter also applies Thomas's anthropology to a host of pressing contemporary concerns including the modern crisis of faith and reason political theology the relationship between divine grace and human freedom and many more The concluding chapter explores the Christological center of Thomas's theology
