Private International Law in Comparative Perspective Jürgen Basedow, Harald Baum, Yuko Nishitani, Max-Planck-Institut für Ausländisches und Internationales Privatrecht, 2008 The idea of national codification is advancing on a global scale in conflict of laws A large number of legislative projects dealing with codifying and modernizing private international law both on the national and the supranational level have been launched in the past few years Among such recent initiatives the advances taken by the European and the Japanese legislators are particularly reflecting these developments On January 1 2007 the new Japanese Act on General Rules for Application of Laws entered into force replacing the outdated conflict of laws statute of 1898 This major reform finds its parallels in the current efforts of the European Union to create a modern private international law regime for its member states This volume presents the first comprehensive analysis of the new Japanese private international law available in any western language and contrasts it with corresponding European developments Most of the contributors from Japan are scholars who were actively involved in and responsible for preparing the new Act All of them are renowned experts in the field of private international law Leading European experts in the conflict of laws supplement the Japanese analyses with comparative contributions reflecting the pertinent discussion of parallel endeavours in the EU To guarantee better understanding English translations of both the present and the former Japanese statutes have
