This Thing Called Theory Teresa Stoppani, Giorgio Ponzio, George Themistokleous, 2016-11-10 In the age of post digital architecture and digital materiality This Thing Called Theory explores current practices of architectural theory their critical and productive role The book is organized in sections which explore theory as an open issue in architecture as it relates to and borrows from other disciplines thus opening up architecture itself and showing how architecture is inextricably connected to other social and theoretical practices The sections move gradually from the specifics of architectural thought its history theory and criticism and their ongoing relation with philosophy to the critical positions formulated through architecture s specific forms of expression and onto more recent forms of architecture s engagement and self definition The book s thematic sessions are concluded by and interspersed with a series of shorter critical position texts which together propose a new vision of the contemporary role of theory in architecture What emerges overall is a critical and productive role for theory in architecture today theory as a proposition theory as task and as a risk of architecture

Architecture and the Paradox of Dissidence Ines Weizman, 2014-02-03 Architecture and the Paradox of Dissidence maps out and expands upon the methodologies of architectural action and reinvigorates the concept of dissent within the architectural field It expands the notion of dissidence to other similar practices and strategies of resistance in a variety of historical and geographical contexts The book also discusses how the gestures and techniques of past struggles as well as dilemmas of working in politically suppressive regimes can help to inform those of today This collection of essays from expert scholars demonstrates the multiple responses to this subject the potential and dangers of dissidence and thus constructs a robust lexicon of concepts that will point to possible ways forward for politically and theoretically committed architects and practitioners Difficult Heritage and Immersive Experiences Agiatas Benardou, Anna Maria Droumpouki, 2022-12-09 Difficult Heritage and Immersive Experiences examines the benefits involved in designing and employing immersive technologies to reconstruct difficult pasts at heritage sites around the world Presenting interdisciplinary case studies of heritage sites and museums from across a range of different contexts the volume analyzes the ways in which various types of immersive technologies can help visitors to contextualize and negotiate difficult or sensitive heritage and traumatic pasts Demonstrating that some of the most creative applications of immersive experiences appear in and at museums and heritage sites the book showcases how immersive technologies offer the possibility of confronting and disputing presumptions and prejudices triggering responses delivering new knowledge initiating dialogue and challenging preexisting notions of collective identity The book provides a conceptual as well as a hands on approach to understanding the use of immersive technologies at sensitive sites around the globe Difficult Heritage and Immersive Experiences is essential reading for researchers and students who are interested in or engaged in the study of cultural heritage memory history politics dark tourism design and digital media or immersive technologies The book will also be of interest to museum and heritage practitioners Creating Through Mind and Emotions Mário Ming Kong, Maria do Rosário Monteiro, Maria João Pereira Neto, 2022-07-01 The texts presented in Proportion Harmonies and Identities PHI Creating Through Mind and Emotions were compiled to establish a multidisciplinary platform for presenting interacting and disseminating research This platform also aims to foster the awareness and discussion on Creating Through Mind and Emotions focusing on different visions relevant to Architecture Arts and Humanities Design and Social Sciences and its importance and benefits for the sense of identity both individual and communal The idea of Creating Through Mind and Emotions has been a powerful motor for development since the Western Early Modern Age Its theoretical and practical foundations have become the working tools of scientists philosophers and artists who seek strategies and policies to accelerate the development process in different contexts Ethno-Architecture and the Politics of Migration Mirjana Lozanovska, 2015-12-22 Ethno Architecture and the Politics of Migration explores the interface between migration and architecture Cities have been substantially affected by transnational migration but the physical manifestations of migration in architecture and its effect on streetscape neighbourhood and city have so far been understudied This contributed volume examines how migrants interact with adapt and construct new architecture Looking at the physical urban and cultural impact of these changes on a variety of sites the authors explore architecture as an identity category and investigate what buildings and places associated with migration tell us about central questions of belonging culture community and home in regions such as North America Australia and the UK An important contribution to debates on place identity and the transformation of places as a result of mobility and globalised economies in the 21st century Inclusive Urbanization Krishna Shrestha, Hemant Ojha, Phil McManus, Anna Rubbo, Krishna Kumar Dhote, 2014-07-25 How do we include and represent all people in cities As the world rapidly urbanizes and climate change creates global winners and losers understanding how to design cities that provide for all their citizens is of the utmost importance Inclusive Urbanization attempts to not only provide meaningful practical guidance to urban designers managers and local actors but also create a definition of inclusion that incorporates strategies bigger than the welfare state and tactics that bring local actors and the state into meaningful dialogue Written by a team of experienced academics designers and NGO professionals Inclusive Urbanization shows how urbanization policy and management can be used to make more inclusive climate resilient cities through a series of 18 case studies in South Asia By creating a model of urban life and processes that takes into account social spatial cultural regulatory and economic dimensions the book finds a way to make both the processes and outcomes of urban design representative of all of the city s inhabitants

Architecture & Feminist Critical Theory Hilde Heynen, 2025-11-26 Hilde Heynen is a Belgian architectural theorist whose work bridges neo Marxist critical theory and current feminist discourse applying these perspectives to architectural culture This volume collects her most significant texts from three decades of intellectual work centred on three feature concepts mimesis dwelling and displacement It offers readers incisive reflections on architects roles in shaping societies and the alliance between ideology societal structures of injustice political economy housing and the built environment Within a fierce post critical debate among scholars who have begun to question the relevance of architectural theory to the discipline in the early twenty first century Heynen s position remains constant throughout her writings in defence of architectural theory as a social and transformative practice This collection is essential reading for new generations of architects and cultural theorists interested in modernity gender and criticality
