Undeniably we would like all books to be fairy tales or novels and at present most of them are But there is another side to things and we must face it Life is real life is earnest as Tennyson tells us said an orator to whom I listened lately and though Longfellow not Tennyson wrote the famous line quoted by the earnest speaker yet there is a good deal of truth in it The word earnest like many other good words has been overdone It is common to sneer at earnest workers yet where would we be without them especially in our clima

Mrs. Lang,1910 The Red Book of Heroes Mrs. Andrew Lang,2020-09-28 Everybody nowadays is so used to seeing in the streets nurses wearing long floating cloaks of different colours blue brown grey and the rest and to having them with us when we are ill that it is difficult to imagine a time when there were no such people In the stories that were written even fifty years ago you will soon find out what sort of women they were who called themselves nurses Any kind of person seems to have been thought good enough to look after a sick man it was not a matter which needed a special talent or teaching and no girl would have dreamed of nursing anybody outside her own home still less of giving up her life to looking after the sick It was merely work it was thought for old women and so at the moment when the patient needed most urgently some one young and strong and active about him who could lift him from one side of the bed to the other or keep awake all night to give him his medicine or to see that his fire did not go out he was left to a fat sleepy often drunken old body who never cared if he lived or died so that she was not disturbed The woman who was to change all this was born in Florence in the year 1820 and called after that city Her father Mr Nightingale seems to have been fond of giving his family place names for Florence s sister about a year older than herself had the old title of Naples tacked on to Frances and in after life was always spoken of as Parthy or Parthenope By and by a young cousin of these little girls would be named Athena after the town Athens and then the fashion grew and I have heard of twins called Inkerman and Balaclava and of an Elsinora while we all know several Almas and may even have met a lady who bears the name of the highest mountain in the world of course you can all guess what that is Mr and Mrs Nightingale did not stay very long in Italy after Florence s birth They grew tired of living abroad and wanted to get back to their old home among the hills and streams of Derbyshire Here at Lea hall Florence s father could pass whole days happily with his books and the beautiful things he had collected in his travels but he looked well after the people in the village and insisted that the children should be sent to a little school where they learned how to read and write and count for twopence a week If the poor villagers were ill or unhappy his wife used to visit them and help them with advice as well as with money and we may be quite sure that her little daughters often went with her on her rounds So the early years of Florence s childhood passed away amidst the flowery fields and bare hills that overlooked the beautiful river Derwent The village built of stone like so many in the North Country lay far below and on Sundays the two little girls dressed in their best tippets and bonnets used to walk with their father and mother across the meadows to the tiny church at Dethick Here nearly two hundred and fifty years ago one Anthony Babington knelt in prayer though his thoughts often wandered to the beautiful Scottish queen shut up by order of Elizabeth in Wingfield manor only a few miles away Of course Parthy and Florence knew all about him and their greatest treat was a visit to his house where they could see in the kitchen a trap door leading to a large secret chamber in which a conspirator might live for weeks without being found out A great deal of the house had been pulled down or allowed to fall into decay but the bailiff who lived in the rest was always glad to see them and would take them to all kinds of delightful places and up little dark narrow winding stairs at the end of which you pushed up another trap door and found yourself in your bedroom What a fascinating way of getting there and how very very silly people are now to have wide staircases and straight passages and stupid doors which you know will open instead of never being sure if the trap door had not stuck or some enemy had not placed a heavy piece of furniture upon it
