The Educational Screen, 1926 Brain Food and Other Tales Brian Allen, 2012-02-01 On the surface menace lurks in many of the stories in Brain Food and Other Tales. Some of these disturbing stories seem to be based on fact. All are surprisingly difficult to forget. The short story Brain Food tells of a distressed woman who happens on an unbelievably cruel and callous way of ridding herself of her violent drunken husband. Cottage Pies appears to be set within an idyllic village but all is not as it seems. Soon a shockingly brutal child murder and rape shatter the tranquility. The villagers take matters into their own hands in determining the culprit and inflicting a suitable penalty. Yet another story Asudem tells of a traveller's meeting on an idyllic Greek island with a beautiful sophisticated woman that gives every indication of proving to be the start of a truly rewarding relationship. Instead it is the prelude to a tale that takes a different horrific direction. Never Say Die illustrates that there may be worse things than dying. Far from bringing peace and relief from a ghastly terminal illness death instead brings the most horrible transformation. In contrast My Good Friend Sam tells a story of true friendship but still offers an unpredictable ending. Educational Screen and Audiovisual Guide, 1926

The Autocar, 1907 Bid for Love Carol Finch, 1995-09 The 1993 Mr Romance pageant winner James Fox graces the cover of popular Zebra author Carol Finch's To Love Again contribution. A Bid for Love is the story of a widowed lady rancher who trusts her heart and the sale of her property to a silver tongued auctioneer. To Love Again books feature special easier to read print. The Canterbury Agricultural & Pastoral Association's Journal, 1909 The Spirit of Capitalism Liah
