

The Rising

A dark, atmospheric illustration. In the center, a bird with outstretched wings is captured in flight, silhouetted against a bright, hazy sky. The bird is positioned above a dark, rippling body of water. The background is filled with dark, silhouetted trees and branches, creating a sense of depth and mystery. The overall mood is somber and contemplative.

The Rising A Poetry Collaboration:

DINNER POEMS Amanda Monteil, Jon Rutzmoser, 2013-09-13 For five months these poets meeting at their dinner table have paused to jot down ruminations and pondering more deeply have withdrawn to their bedroom to limn their dueling mutual misunderstandings of the eternal questions of love coexistence and bodily presence while never forgetting to eat dinner their favorite meal This collaboration opens up what the everyday means to two people in love and what every day can be when opened up to the other We need this Joe Hall author of The Devotional Poems Dinner Poems forces us to ask what is collaborative writing as a genre Moreover what is the bare minimum at which a genre can function and still be recognized as itself Holly Melgard Joey Yearous Algozin from the Introduction to Dinner Poems This is the first book in Bon Aire Projects Lovers series

Sound-Emotion Interaction in Poetry Reuven Tsur, Chen Gafni, 2022-06-03 This book is a collection of studies providing a unique view on two central aspects of poetry sounds and emotive qualities with emphasis on their interactions The book addresses various theoretical and methodological issues related to topics like sound symbolism poetic prosody and voice quality in recited poetry The authors examine how these sound related phenomena contribute to the generation of emotive qualities and how these qualities are perceived by readers and listeners The book builds upon Reuven Tsur's theoretical research and supplements it from an experimental angle It also engages in methodological debates with prevalent scientific approaches In particular it emphasises the importance of proper theory in empirical literary studies and the role of the personal traits of the reader in literary analysis The intended readership of this book consists mainly of literary scholars but it might also appeal to researchers from disciplines such as linguistics psychology and brain science

Collaborative Translation and Multi-Version Texts in Early Modern Europe Belén Bistué, 2016-05-23 Focusing on team translation and the production of multilingual editions and on the difficulties these techniques created for Renaissance translation theory this book offers a study of textual practices that were widespread in medieval and Renaissance Europe but have been excluded from translation and literary history The author shows how collaborative and multilingual translation practices challenge the theoretical reflections of translators who persistently call for a translation text that offers a single univocal version and maintains unity of style In order to explore this tension Bistué discusses multi version texts in both manuscript and print from a diverse variety of genres the Scriptures astrological and astronomical treatises herbals goliardic poems pamphlets the Greek and Roman classics humanist grammars geography treatises pedagogical dialogs proverb collections and romances Her analyses pay careful attention to both European vernaculars and classical languages including Arabic which played a central role in the intense translation activity carried out in medieval Spain Comparing actual translation texts and strategies with the forceful theoretical demands for unity that characterize the reflections of early modern translators the author challenges some of the assumptions frequently made in translation and literary analysis The book contributes to the understanding of early modern discourses and writing practices including the emerging theoretical discourse on translation and the writing of narrative fiction both of which as Bistu shows define themselves against the models of collaborative translation and multi version texts Literary Collaboration and the Rise of the Russian Woman Writer Ann Marie Marsh-Flores,2004 Collaborative Writing in the Long Nineteenth Century Heather Bozant Witcher,2022-03-17 Examining social and material dimensions of collaboration this book reveals the diverse networks of nineteenth century literary exchange Twentieth-Century British Authors and the Rise of Opera in Britain Irene Morra,2016-02-17 This book is the first to examine in depth the contributions of major British authors such as W H Auden and E M Forster as critics and librettists to the rise of British opera in the twentieth century The perceived literary values of British authors as much as the musical innovations of British composers informed the aesthetic development of British opera Indeed British opera emerged as a simultaneously literary and musical project Too often operatic adaptations are compared superficially to their original sources This is a particular problem for British opera which has become increasingly defined artistically by the literary sophistication of its narrative sources The resulting collaborations between literary figures and composers have crucial implications for the development of both opera and literature Twentieth Century British Authors and the Rise of Opera in Britain reveals the importance of this literary involvement in operatic adaptation to literature and literary studies to music and musicology and to cultural and theoretical studies Masterplots: The four series in eight volumes; two thousand and ten plot stories and essay reviews from the world's fine literature Frank Northen Magill,1958 Rapport du Comité consultatif ,1903 An Anthology of Marathi Poetry, 1945-65 Dilip Chitre,1967 Masterplots; Combined Edition Frank Northen Magill,1960 The Cambridge Ancient History: The Hellenistic monarchies and the rise of Rome ,1928 Masterplots, Five Hundred Plot-stories and Essay-reviews from the World's Fine Literature Frank Northen Magill,Dayton Kohler,1960 New Nash's Pall Mall Magazine ,1895 The Papers of the Bibliographical Society of America Bibliographical Society of America,1973 Labour Co-partnership ,1900 The Book of Poetry Edwin Markham,1927 The Rise and Progress of the Dalton Plan Albert John Lynch,1926 The Rise of Raymond Frank Frankfort Moore,1916 Poetry of the English Renaissance, 1509-1660 John William Hebel,Hoyt Hopewell Hudson,1929 Masterplots Frank Northen Magill,1960
