The Diamond is Mine Olateju 'Molaji Ojomo, 2011-12-29 This is a work of fiction and not a true story about anybody in particular It is however a story about my people and some of our ways of life Ours is a beautiful cultural heritage and has its roots in threads of history legend and victories of our forefathers The changing world is affecting our traditions and the path the present generation is treading seems a dangerous one Our hope is that the upcoming generation will uphold those of our cultural beliefs that are beneficial and discard those that are detrimental to us and the world at large so that we can make progress Denise the heroine of the story wanted to fight and change the corrupt system of her land Her attempt to do this failed in college She could not stop exam malpractices just on her own So she thought the best place to continue her fight would be at her workplace the very seat of corruption the police force She had chosen a career in the police force in order to do this Hoping to make an impression on the upcoming generation of policemen she sermonized to officers in training and motivated them to be exemplary in their duties as officers of the law It was a good idea but quite ludicrous The few who paid her any attention were handicapped and could do very little while the older generation of officers listened to her with some kind of tolerance Her crusade almost cost her the life of her son and she had to break one of her most important rules as a police officer Do not give or receive bribe But to be able to reach where her son was held she had to give a very large bribe to the underworld All names in the book are fictitious and bear no relevance to any individual dead or alive While some incidents mentioned in the story actually happened the time place and how they happened exactly had been completely or partly changed to give the story the required flavor to keep you reading Sit back and enjoy the story
