Richard L. Wiener, Brian H. Bornstein, Robert Schopp, Steven L. Willborn, 2008-11-01 This book invites the legal and psychology communities to work together in solving some of our most pressing social problems It examines four controversial areas involving people s perceptions of others The book is therefore a guide to understanding the valuable contribution of social scientific research in policy formulation in the law and it addresses the role of psychology in substantive law and legal decision making The History of Nebraska Law Alan G. Gless, 2008 In the aftermath of the Civil War legislators in the Nebraska Territory grappled with the responsibility of forming a state government as well as with the larger issues of reconstructing the Union protecting civil rights and redefining federal state relations In the years that followed Nebraskans coped with regional and national economic collapses Nebraska women struggled for full recognition in the legal profession Meyer v Nebraska a case involving a teacher in a one room rural Nebraska schoolhouse changed the course of American constitutional doctrine and remains one of the cornerstones of civil liberties law And Roscoe Pound a boy from Lincoln went on to become one of the nation s great legal philosophers Nebraska holds a prominent position in the field of Native American legal history and the state s original inhabitants have been at the center of many significant developments in federal Indian policy Nebraska Indian legal history is replete with stories of failure and success heartache and triumph hardship and hope These stories are more than a mere record of the past of treaties broken or trials won they are reminders of the ongoing and sometimes tense relations among the many peoples and nations that make up the heartland Much of Nebraska law reflects mainstream American law yet Nebraskans also have been open to experiment and innovation The state revamped the legislative process by establishing the nation s only unicameral legislature and pioneered public employment collective bargaining and dispute resolution through its industrial relations commission and its relaxation of strict separation of powers These seemingly contradictory trends however are but differing expressions of a single underlying principle inscribed in the state s motto Equality Before the Law The Jury Under Fire Brian H. Bornstein, Edie Greene, 2017 The Jury Under Fire reviews a number of controversial beliefs about juries that have persisted in recent years as well as the implications of these views for jury reform efforts Each chapter focuses on a mistaken assumption or myth about jurors or juries critiques the myth and then uses social science research findings to suggest appropriate reforms Evaluation for Workplace Discrimination and Harassment Jane Goodman-Delahunty, William E. Foote, 2010-12-13 This book addresses the evaluation of damage for discrimination or harassment claims and explores the history and importance of this process the legal standards and the procedure for applying this evaluation in court Specific ethical issues that may arise when conducting these assessments are discussed along with suggestions to address and resolve them A helpful review of empirical research related to the frequency and types of workplace discrimination and its potential effects on employees is also included

Forensic and Legal Psychology Mark Costanzo, Daniel Krauss, 2015-01-13 Drawing on a combined three decades of teaching experience Costanzo and Krauss help students explore the fascinating intersections where psychology and the law meet in an excitingly written textbook that presents the latest research in the context of dozens of real cases As before the new edition draws on extensive research in social cognitive clinical and developmental psychology to explore virtually every aspect of the legal system studied by psychologists emphasizing the ways research and theory deepen our understanding of key participants e g criminals police victims lawyers witnesses judges and jurors and basic psychological processes e g decision making persuasion perception memory and behavior change
