Swords Into Plows Lillian D. Gardner, 2012-01-19 Swords into Plows is the story of an Ohio boy who wanted to be a blacksmith In the nineteenth century when this story takes place it was the custom to work for someone in the trade you wanted to learn However because John's father enlisted in the Union Army John was left to take care of the farm He farmed and found some time to work at the blacksmith shop too In the three years that John's dad was fighting in the South John did a lot of thinking about war and peace facing at home the daily reality of change Having few options he chose to find his inner strength and grow in reliance on God I wrote Swords into Plows in memory of my own grandfather John Fremont Dellinger whose life somewhat parallels the story Deciding to write the story I found William Dellinger's war record As I merge historical facts with family lore about my grandfather and watch families become separated by war today it is my hope that children like John are also wondering how peace happens Lillian Gardner      The Salina Story R. A. McAuliffe,1966

Pragmatic liberalism an in between approach argues that a liberal world order can be sustained and promoted by the pragmatic application of liberal principles It rejects both the over pessimism of Realism and the over optimism of Idealism
