Randomised Controlled Trials Robert Savage, Amy Fox, Anneka Dawson, Helen Gray, Clare Huxley, 2025-03-03 In early 2021 the Flexible Phonics reading intervention a large scale randomised controlled trial took place in 118 schools in England and involved nearly 3 000 children This study aimed to provide valuable insights into the success of largely school based education trials The Flexible Phonics trial proved to be not only an important experiment in improving children s literacy but a case study in which the methodology of single randomised controlled trials in education can be considered Reading Randomised Controlled Trials investigates the complexities of conducting randomised controlled trials in the field of education and how they can be seen as a cultural activity The book emphasises the human operations decision making and actions that drive such trials which are often overlooked in published reports Through the case study of Flexible Phonics the book highlights the key differences between scaled educational trials and other types of trials such as pharmaceutical trials The additional focus on early childhood literacy is of significant educational importance particularly in the context of UK school partial closures in 2020 and 2021 during the Covid 19 pandemic Reading Randomised Controlled Trials is ultimately a unique resource on the implementation of randomised controlled trials in authentic school contexts and for the sustained improvement of practice in education Helping Young Children Learn Language and Literacy Carol Vukelich, James F. Christie, Billie Enz, 2002 As a resource book designed for teachers of preschool and kindergarten students the text provides classroom strategies case studies classroom management techniques and home school connections to facilitate teaching the language arts Strategies for the bilingual classrooms are also included Indiana Instructor, 1917 A Dictionary of the English Language Samuel Johnson, 1882 Happy Road to Reading, First- Year Manual Katharine Elizabeth Dopp, May Pitts, Sidney Clarence Garrison, 1935 Contributions to Education, 1928 Teaching Language and Literacy James F. Christie, Billie Enz, Carol Vukelich, 2003 The unique focus of this text integrates constructivist learning diversity and instruction based assessment and helps translate principles into practice The central underlying thesis of Teaching Language and Literacy is that children are at the center of all good language and literacy teaching The text with broad coverage of preschool through the elementary grades advocates an appreciation of student diversity and an implementation of assessment strategies relating to specific learning teaching events The text describes how children construct their own knowledge about oral and written language by engaging in integrated meaningful and functional activities with other people in a variety of contexts It then goes one step further describing how teachers can design authentic classroom reasons for using oral and written language In keeping with the text s theme illustrations of how teachers can work effectively with diverse learners appear throughout the text In addition instructionally linked assessment is another important topic central to the text A Dictionary of the English Language Robert Gordon Latham, 1870 Houghton Mifflin Reading, 2003 Grade 1 The Elementary English Review, 1927 The American School Board Journal William George Bruce, William Conrad Bruce, 1956 A Survey of Vernacular Education Programming at the Provincial Level Within Papua New Guinea
