Lots of companies talk about their focus on customer service Most cant or more likely won t sustain it For years I ve watched organizations spend millions on advertising to attract customers But then by neglecting a single core principle they drive customers away The problem is that when it comes to customer service very few CEOs very few companies are Relentless Some focus on customer service for a month a year some for six years Very few leaders are willing to be constantly permanently focusing on customer service A focus on customer service can t be an add on It can t be for a while It can t be under one CEO and then forgotten with the next It has to be part of the corporate culture and it can t be B S If you re going to be successful you got to be Relentless Too often the financial people take over They re looking only at numbers They don t care about the customer experience and customer service so these disappear Financial people are not relentless and as a result their businesses fail to be as great as they could be If your goal is to build a business around the customer experience you ve got to be Relentless What does it take to be Relentless The most important thing is that it has to be a strategy If you miss the strategy point of view then it s just a matter of money and there s no real commitment You must have a strategic relentless commitment to customer service Period Being Relentless is part of culture in all elite exceptional organizations Relentless means that you can never give up you ve got to constantly focus on it Relentless has to be a passion Relentless has to be a lifetime commitment
