Women and Devotional Literature in the Middle Ages Cate Gunn,Liz Herbert McAvoy,Naoë Kukita Yoshikawa,2023 Essays on women and devotional literature in the Middle Ages in commemoration and celebration of the respected feminist scholar Catherine Innes Parker Silence was a much lauded concept in the Middle Ages particularly in the context of religious literature directed at women Based on the Pauline prescription that women should neither preach nor teach and should at all times keep speech to a minimum the concept of silence lay at the forefront of many devotional texts particularly those associated with various forms of women s religious enclosure Following the example of the Virgin Mary religious women were exhorted to speak seldom and then only seriously and devoutly However as this volume shows such gendered exhortations to silence were often more rhetorical than literal The contributions range widely they consider the English Wooing Group texts and female authored visionary writings from the Saxon nunnery of Helfta in the thirteenth century works by Richard Rolle and the Dutch mystic Jan van Ruusbroec in the fourteenth century Anglo French treatises and books housed in the library of the English noblewoman Cecily Neville in the fifteenth century and the resonant poetics of women from non Christian cultures But all demonstrate the ways in which silence rather than being a mere absence of speech frequently comprised a form of gendered articulation and proto feminist point of resistance They thus provide an apt commemoration and celebration of the deeply innovative work of Catherine Innes Parker 1956 2019 the respected feminist scholar and a pioneer of this important field of study Competing Devotions Mary Blair-Loy, 2009-07 The wrenching decision facing successful women who must choose between demanding careers and intensive family lives has been the subject of many articles and books most of which propose strategies for resolving the dilemma Competing Devotions focuses on broader social and cultural forces that create women s identities and shape their understanding of what makes life worth living Mary Blair Loy examines the career paths of women financial executives who have tried various approaches to balancing career and family These mavericks who face great resistance but are aided by new ideological and material resources that come with historical change may eventually redefine both the nuclear family and the capitalist firm in ways that reduce work family conflict Table of Contents Introduction 1 The Devotion to Work Schema 2 The Devotion to Family Schema 3 Reinventing Schemas Creating Part Time Careers 4 Reinventing Schemas Family Life among Full Time Executive Women 5 Turning Points 6 Implications Appendix Methods and Data Notes References Acknowledgments Index Many professional women intuit that male colleagues whose spouse handle for them the details of everyday life are favored in the workplace Blair Loy confirms this intuition and shows us how it happens She captures how the cultural schemas of family devotion and work devotion contribute to the reproduction of gender inequality and how meeting the demands of a husband s job and other people s needs push professional women to progressively abandon their work to take care of others Her analysis also gives us hope by comparing the fate of pre and post baby boomers This is both an important scholarly contribution and a book that will help readers think differently about their lives It should be required reading for professional women who aspire to maintain multidimensional lives Mich le Lamont author of The Dignity of Working Men Morality and the Boundaries of Race Class and Immigration This is a fascinating book with an important message Blair Loy s findings are surprising She challenges conventional viewpoints She is on to something really new when she writes about not only the interplay between cultural norms and individual actions and institutional structures but on the cultural schemas that evoke deep emotional resonances An outstanding book Cynthia Fuchs Epstein author of Deceptive Distinctions Sex Gender and the Social Order Mary Blair Loy s book transcends old debates about work and family by examining the women who have beaten the odds and risen to the top Her detailed examination of careers and strategies perfectly complements her subtle analysis of the schemas and visions these women have for their lives Blair Loy has given us not only a splendid view into a little known world but also a new way of understanding the dynamic interplay of work and family Looking beyond the static conflict we have studied so much she shows how creative women put traditional schemas of family and work into a mutual transformation to build for themselves a new and more livable world Andrew Abbott author of Time Matters
