Tomei, 1999      Russian Women Writers Christine D. Tomei, 1999      The Prose of Life Benjamin M. Sutcliffe, 2009-04-13 Both before and after the collapse of the Soviet Union everyday life and the domestic sphere served as an ideological battleground simultaneously threatening Stalinist control and challenging traditional Russian gender norms that had been shaken by the Second World War The Prose of Life examines how six female authors employed images of daily life to depict women s experience in Russian culture from the 1960s to the present Byt a term connoting both the everyday and its many petty problems is an enduring yet neglected theme in Russian literature its very ordinariness causes many critics to ignore it Benjamin Sutcliffe s study is the first sustained examination of how and why everyday life as a literary and philosophical category catalyzed the development of post Stalinist Russian women s prose particularly since the collapse of the Soviet Union A focus on the representation of everyday life in women s prose reveals that a first generation of female writers Natal ia Baranskaia Irina Grekova both legitimated and limited their successors Liudmila Petrushevskiaia Tat iana Tolstaia Liudmila Ulitskaia and Svetlana Vasilenko in their choice of literary topics The Prose of Life traces the development and intriguing ruptures of recent Russian women s prose becoming a must read for readers interested in Russian literature and gender studies 2009 Outstanding Academic Title Choice Magazine      A History of Women's Writing in Russia Adele Marie Barker, Jehanne M. Gheith, 2002-07-11 A History of Women s Writing in Russia offers a comprehensive account of the lives and works of Russia s women writers Based on original and archival research this volume forces a re examination of many of the traditionally held assumptions about Russian literature and women s role in the tradition In setting about the process of reintegrating women writers into the history of Russian literature contributors have addressed the often surprising contexts within which women s writing has been produced Chapters reveal a flourishing literary tradition where none was thought to exist They redraw the map defining Russia s literary periods they look at how

Gender and Russian Literature Rosalind J. Marsh, 1996-03-28 A 1996 overview of key issues in Russian women's writing and of important representations of women by men from 1600 onwards      A History of Women's Writing in Russia Adele Marie Barker, Jehanne M. Gheith, 2009-12-03 A History of Women's Writing in Russia traces comprehensively the lives and works of Russia's women writers from the Middle Ages to the present. Contributors have addressed the often surprising contexts within which women's writing has been produced. Chapters reveal a flourishing literary tradition where none was thought to exist, looking at how Russia's women writers articulated their own experience and reassessing their relationship to the dominant male tradition. The volume is supported by extensive reference features including a bibliography and guide to writers and their works.      Dictionary of Russian Women Writers Greenwood Publishing Group, Incorporated, Marina Ledkovsky, Charlotte Rosenthal, Mary Fleming Zirin, 1994-03-01 This unique scholarly work, the work of more than 100 contributors worldwide, would have been more accurately titled encyclopedia since most entries are extensive, many covering several pages. A well-designed format throughout makes for a very useable tool. Choice      Russian Women Writers Aleksandr Kushner, 2001      Mapping Experience in Polish and Russian Women's Writing Urszula Chowaniec, 2010-09-13 The volume encompasses eleven articles which discuss the critical views that Polish and Russian women writers have articulated with regard to the notion of experience and constructions of femininity in the national imagination from the 19th to the 21st centuries. Major themes of the articles include women's experiences as writers in the 19th century, women's embodied experiences of a traumatic past, body and sexuality in the different ages of women, political and aesthetic discourses and femininity. Although the articles are arranged in chronological order, they do not form an absolute chronological or periodic continuum, i.e. from Romanticism to Postmodernism, although references to certain aesthetic periods are made. The authors of the articles reflect in detail on how the women writers and their literary texts represent different understandings and experiences in relation to dominant perceptions, for example of the memory of war, of motherhood, of art and aesthetics, and so on. Readers are encouraged to seek parallels and continuities between the different historical times and spaces between women's writing in Russia and Poland, between different scholarly approaches and aims. The articles of this volume bring together important critical standpoints in women's writing in Poland and Russia, in which parallels, continuities and resemblances can be traced, but in which discontinuities, breaks and differences also make themselves visible. Apart from the conspicuous resemblances between individual Russian and Polish women writers' works, or even between groups of women writers, the articles document the diversity within Russian and Polish women's writing respectively, and even within individual writers.      Bio-critical Guide to Russian Women Writers, 1989      Jewish Women Writers in the Soviet Union Rina Lapidus, 2013-03-01 This book presents the lives and works of eleven Jewish women authors who lived in the Soviet Union.

and who wrote and published their works in Russian The works include poems novels memoirs and other writing The book provides an overview of the life of each author an overview of each author s literary output and an assessment of each author s often conflicted view of her feminine self and of her Jewish self At a time when the large Jewish population which lived within the Soviet Union was threatened under Stalin s prosecutions the book provides highly informative insights into what it was like to be a Jewish woman in the Soviet Union in this period The writers presented are Alexandra Brustein Elizaveta Polonskaia Raisa Bloch Hanna Levina Olga Ziv Yulia Neiman Rahil Baumwohl Margarita Alliger Sarah Levina Kulneva Sarah Pogreb and Zinaida Mirkina Translations of Contemporary Russian Women Writers Rebecca Gould, 2003

Women and Russian Culture Rosalind Marsh, 1998-11-01 The image of women in Russian culture has undergone profound changes from the origins of modern Russian literature in the eighteenth century until the Revolution of 1917 when women were a source of fascination for Russian writers to the socialist realism period during which public discussion of the representation of women in literature rapidly declined and the woman question was declared to have been resolved to a reappraisal of the position of women since the 1980s This collection of essays by leading western and Russian specialists contains new insights and updates previous research into the role of women in Russian culture in the last two centuries and contributes to two exciting and growing research areas the feminist critique of work by Russian male authors and the study of Russian women writers Moreover whereas most previous studies have concentrated on the aesthetic qualities of works by women writers this collection includes both close textual analysis and the discussion of biographical historical and political questions relating both to the representation of women and women s culture The aim is not to present a unified manifesto but rather to bring together a spectrum of approaches and positions within their common focus on the relationship between women and culture in Russia Contributors R Marsh A Barker J Andrew D Greene I Kazakova C Schuler S Graham K Hodgson N Kolchevska N Cornwell J Curtis M Katz M Ledkovsky P I Barta A Darmodekhina D Gillespie N Zhuravkina B Lanin S Carsten A Tait Russia • Women • Culture Helena Goscilo, Beth Holmgren, 1996-05-22 Een aantal essays over de culturele bijdrage die Russische vrouwen geleverd hebben aan de Russische beschaving De volgende bijdragen zijn opgenomen The second fantasy mother or all baths are women s baths door Nancy Condee Keeping a breast of the waist land women s fashion in early nineteenth century Russia door Helena Goscilo Female fashion Soviet style bodies of ideology door Olga Vainshtein Getting under their skin the beauty salon in Russian women s lives door Nadezhda Azhgikhina en Helena Goscilo Domestic porkbarreling in nineteenth century Russia or who holds the keys to the larder door Darra Goldstein The ritual fabrics of Russian village women door Mary B Kelly Dirty women cultural connotations of cleanliness in Soviet Russia door Nadya L Peterson Women on the verge of new language Russian salon hostesses in the first half of the nineteenth century door Lina Bernstein Stepping out going under women Russia s twentieth century salons door Beth Holmgren Pleasure danger and the dance nineteenth century Russian variations door Stephanie Sandler The incomparable Anastasiia
