Ford,2017-06-15 Three common routines are seen in almost every primary language arts programs morning messages shared readings and word walls These routines should be integrated to support the total language arts program but are teachers of grades K 2 getting the most bang for their buck out of these activities Morning messages can become very routinized and repeat the same experiences over and over again Shared readings are sometimes conducted with little variation in spite of changing demands from the texts being used and changing needs in the learners with whom they are being used Word walls might be put up with some attention early in the year and remain virtually unchanged as the year moves forward Intensifying Classroom Routines in Reading and Writing Programs focuses on how teachers can get more instructional mileage out of these three common classroom routines Author Michael P Ford lays out step by step day by day plans to put those three key routines on a cycle that changes as students move through developmental phases This resource helps teachers plan for emergent and early readers and writers It also looks at how teachers can assist students as they move through critical areas including concepts of print alphabetic knowledge phonological awareness sound symbol relationships high frequency words structural analysis context clues comprehension strategies and composition strategies With these intensified routines in place students will clearly see connections between reading and writing      Primary Education ,1908      Slaying the Dragons Barbara Frandsen,2011-08-30 We know that those fearsome fire breathing creatures known as dragons do not truly exist Yet in the world of literacy instruction teachers often feel as though they are battling equally severe and frightening conditions that hinder literacy success The dragons in the book serve as analogies for dyslexia problems which often cause stumbling blocks to literacy mastery Descriptions and ways to differentiate remediation for four types of dyslexia provide insights for veteran teachers as well as novices SLAYING THE DRAGONS provides practical down to earth information about researched and proven literacy instruction by using a delivery that is both succinct and thorough In addition to each of the five essential components of reading identified by the National Reading Counsel other complementary topics result in a combination of tried and true strategies along with new possibilities for 21st century literacy instruction Slaying the Dragons 21st Century Literacy considers several causes of literacy failure Modifications for ELL students gifted and talented and other exceptionalities show up adjacent to strategies In addition technology modifications offer methods of differentiating Through a source in the text teachers gain an opportunity to create their own adapted materials The text format for SLAYING THE DRAGONS accommodates a readers eyes by providing short lines of print bold text to indicate important vocabulary words

Groth,Katherine Spangler,2004 Written from a constructivist viewpoint this popular book for future teachers of children from preschool through the primary grades focuses on how young children construct literacy and how teachers can support and guide that activity through developmentally appropriate teaching practices Advocates giving children a choice of the reading material from which they will learn and caution against grouping children solely by literacy ability Examines current research into emergent and holistic literacy and tie its findings to instructional practices that teach such skills as phonemic awareness phonics and spelling within the context of meaningful reading and writing tasks Increased coverage of assessment emphasizes performance based alternatives to standardized testing during early childhood and examines current recommendations in terms of developmentally appropriate practice Provides a strong explanation of shared and interactive writing Discusses literacy development in infants and toddlers For future or current teachers interested in literacy or reading methods in early childhood School ,1922 The Reading Teacher ,1980 Music Trades ,1918 The Public School Journal ,1904 School and Home Education ,1904 Primary Plans ,1909
