

If you're looking to save money on a MacBook Air M2, there are several strategies you can try to get a discount or make the purchase more affordable. Here are some useful tips:

1. Check for Student or Educator Discounts

Apple offers educational pricing for students, teachers, and education staff. You can get a discount on a MacBook Air M2 through the Apple Education Store. This can typically save you between $100–$150 on the purchase price.

- How to Access: You can verify your eligibility and shop via Apple's education website or use a third-party website like UNiDAYS, which partners with Apple to offer discounts to students.

2. Look for Deals During Major Shopping Events

Apple doesn't usually offer direct discounts, but there are seasonal sales and special events where you might find better prices, including:

- Black Friday / Cyber Monday: These sales often feature discounts, bundles, or gift cards when purchasing Apple products from retailers like Best Buy, Amazon, or Walmart.
- Back-to-School Sales: Apple often includes promotions during back-to-school periods with bonus items (like free AirPods) or bundled discounts.

3. Buy from Authorized Resellers
