India's Higher Education in the Global Context Pradeep Kumar Misra, Nilanjana Moitra, 2026-02-06 This book offers a comprehensive and multifaceted examination of global trends and national strategies with a particular emphasis on internationalization within India's higher education sector. Unlike traditional comparative studies, this book presents a practical policy-oriented approach that integrates perspectives on student and faculty mobility, collaborative research, and digital learning. It emphasizes the implementation of India's National Education Policy 2020 and strategic initiatives such as GIAN and SWAYAM. It also explores the role of international collaborations such as ECCTIS in the UK and UNESCO's Global Convention. With contributions from leading experts in India, the United States, and the United Kingdom, this book presents innovative approaches and forward-thinking solutions to promote inclusive and transformative internationalization strategies. It equips academicians, researchers, policymakers, and university administrators with practical strategies to navigate the evolving landscape of international higher education.

Languages in the Malaysian Education System Asmah Haji Omar, 2015-12-16 This book provides an overview of language education in Malaysia, covering topics such as the evolution of the education system from pre-independence days to the present time, the typology of schools, and the public philosophy behind every policy made in the teaching of languages. The book consists of chapters devoted to the teaching of languages that form separate strands but are at the same time connected to each other within the education system. These chapters discuss implementing the national language policy in education institutions, English in language education policies and planning in Malaysia, Chinese and Tamil language education in Malaysia, teaching of indigenous Malaysian languages, the role of translation in education in Malaysia. It also discusses the development of language which enables the national language Malay to fulfil its role as the main medium of education up to the tertiary level. This book will be of interest to researchers studying language planning, teacher education, and the sociology of education, particularly within the Malaysian context.

Academic Star Wars Maria Yudkevich, Philip G. Altbach, Jamil Salmi, 2023-12-05 A pioneering collection of case studies on the global phenomenon of academic excellence initiatives and how they shape the performance of research universities. Academic excellence initiatives (AEIs), special government-sponsored programs to improve research universities, have provided billions of dollars to top universities and represent perhaps the most significant effort in the past half century to jumpstart academic research. The contributors to Academic Star Wars, superbly edited by Maria Yudkevich, Philip G. Altbach, and Jamil Salmi, analyze AEIs in nine European and Asian countries, including China, Japan, Malaysia, South Korea, Taiwan, Denmark, France, Germany, and Russia, and offer penetrating insights into the successes and problems of these initiatives as well as into the broader system of higher education itself. Academic Star Wars provides a comprehensive analysis of AEIs across the globe as it seeks to understand the impact of these programs on national higher education systems. The contributors explore a host of topics, including how the idea of excellence varies across national systems, the lessons to be drawn from the most successful AEs the consequences of AEs both intended and unintended for participating universities and whether AEs ensure a significant impact on the global standing of national higher education systems Finally the contributors offer policy recommendations for national decision makers and university leaders taking into account the variety of initial conditions of national higher education systems and the differences in AE design scope and funding
