Mindfulness in Adolescence Eva Oberle, Kimberly Schonert-Reichl, 2014-07-30 Addressing a timely topic in the field this special issue covers the benefits of cultivating mindfulness to foster positive development and flourishing in adolescents Presenting the theoretical and empirical basis of mindfulness training with adolescents it includes specific programs activities and guidelines for bringing mindfulness skills and habits to this constituency This special issue Establishes a theoretical framework within mindfulness based approaches in adolescence Includes reviews of empirical evidence on the effectiveness of mindfulness based interventions with youth provides guidance for evaluation and discusses limitations and future direction for research and practice Aims to be a practical resource for educators and practitioners who work with adolescents and their families

Pathways to Adulthood for Disconnected Young Men in Low-Income Communities Kevin Roy, Nikki Jones, 2014-03-26 As the chapters in this volume demonstrate young disadvantaged men from urban neighborhoods face a unique set of challenges and constraints as they transition to adulthood Yet these challenges are not always contained by place Research among Latino and White disadvantaged men in nonurban settings highlights the pressures that come along with fatherhood for disadvantaged men In contrast to popular understandings of absent or disengaged fathers findings reveal how fatherhood and increasing levels of interdependence during early adulthood can buffer men as they make the difficult transition to adulthood The innovative field based research featured in this volume illuminates the contexts processes and meanings in life pathways for disadvantaged men as they move from adolescence into adulthood and should help to inform policies and practices directed at minimizing their marginalization from mainstream society This is the 143rd volume in this series Its mission is to provide scientific and scholarly presentations on cutting edge issues and concepts in child and adolescent development Each volume focuses on a specific new direction or research topic and is edited by experts in that field

Child Development in Africa: Views From Inside Serpell, Kofi Marfo, 2014-12-19 In this volume African scholars engaged in research on the continent reflect on their recent and ongoing empirical studies They discuss the strengths and limitations of research methods theories and interventions designed outside Africa to spur innovative research on the continent And they explore how insights from African philosophical theoretical and empirical work can be combined with exogenous forms of knowledge to generate understanding of the processes of African children's development in ways that are responsive to local contexts and meaningful for indigenous stakeholders A new field of African child development research is emerging in African societies focusing on children as valued and vulnerable members of society and potential civic leaders of the future Systematic inquiries are now designed to enhance our understanding of how African children think to discover effective ways of communicating with them and to inform successful strategies of promoting their health education and preparation for adult responsibilities in society This is the 146th volume in this Jossey Bass series New Directions for Child and Adolescent Development Its mission is to provide scientific and scholarly presentations on cutting edge issues and concepts in this subject area Each volume focuses on a specific new direction or research topic and is edited by experts from that field
