The Dark Continent Images Of Africa In European Narratives About The Congo:

The Dark Continent? Frits Andersen, 2015-12-31 Africa a forgotten continent that evades all attempts at control and transcends reason Or does it This book describes Europe's image of Africa and relates how the conception of the Dark Continent has been fabricated in European culture with the Congo as an analytical focal point It also demonstrates that the myth was more than a creation of colonial propaganda the Congo reform movement the first international human rights movement spread horror stories that still have repercussions today The book cross examines a number of witness testimonies reports and novels from Stanley's travelogues and Conrad's Heart of Darkness to Herge's Tintin and Burroughs Tarzan as well as recent Danish and international Congo literature The Dark Continent proposes that the West's attitudes to Africa regarding free trade emergency aid and intervention are founded on the literary historical assumptions of stories and narrative forms that have evolved since 1870 The Reception of Joseph Conrad in Europe Robert Hampson, Véronique Pauly, 2022-05-05 Born and brought up in Poland bilingually in French and Polish but living for most of his professional life in England and writing in English Joseph Conrad was from the start as much a European writer as he was a British one and his work from his earliest fictions through Heart of Darkness Nostromo and The Secret Agent to his later novels has repeatedly been the focal point of discussions about key issues of the modern age With chapters written by leading international scholars this book provides a wide ranging survey of the reception translation and publication history of Conrad's works across Europe Covering reviews and critical discussion and with some attention to adaptations in other media these chapters situate Conrad's works in their social and political context The book also includes bibliographies of key translations in each of the European countries covered and a timeline of Conrad's reception throughout the continent Africa Magnus Echtler, Marian Burchardt, 2025-12-15 This volume explores secularity in Sub Saharan Africa an area long considered to be to quote John Mbiti notoriously religious or lurking in the secular shadows Our sources question these assumptions by showing how contemporary secularities in Africa emerged from specific socio cultural histories and political conflicts and contestations as well as from colonial impositions and African interventions Organised thematically the volume begins by showing how the constitutions of African post colonial states regulate religion with introductions providing the historical and political contexts of the specific configurations The next sections deal with religionisation and culturalisation the basic processes of dealing with the African past and of reading African indigenous concepts vocabularies practices and symbols within the framework of religious secular distinctions We present sources debating the separation of religion and politics from African socialism atheist organisations and public debates Two further sections deal with expressions of secularity in African literature and photography The last three sections share a regional focus on southern Africa but tell rather different stories about the colonial formation and subsequent transformations of secularity White on Black Jan Nederveen Pieterse, 1992-01-01 White on Black is a compelling visual history of the development of European and American stereotypes of black people over the last two hundred years Its purpose is to show the pervasiveness of prejudice against blacks throughout the western world as expressed in stock in trade racist imagery and caricature Reproducing a wide range of illustrations from engravings and lithographs to advertisements candy wrappings biscuit tins dolls posters and comic strips the book challenges the hidden assumptions of even those who view themselves as unprejudiced Jan Nederveen Pieterse sets Western images of Africa and blacks in a chronological framework including representations from medieval times from the colonial period with its explorers settlers and missionaries from the era of slavery and abolition and from the multicultural societies of the present day Pieterse shows that blacks have been routinely depicted throughout the West as servants entertainers and athletes and that particular countries have developed their own comforting black stereotypes about blacks Sambo and Uncle Tom in the United States Golliwog in Britain Bamboula in France and Black Peter in the Netherlands Looking at conventional portrayals of blacks in the nursery in sexual arenas and in commerce and advertising Pieterse analyzes the conceptual roots of the stereotypes about them The images that he presents have a direct and dramatic impact and they raise questions about the expression of power within popular culture and the force of caricature humor and parody as instruments of oppression

A 'crisis of Whiteness' in the 'heart of Darkness' Felix Lösing, 2020 The British and U S American Congo Reform Movement has been praised for its confrontation of colonial atrocities Its commitment to white supremacy however continues to be overlooked Through a thorough analysis of contemporary sources Felix L sing unmasks the colonial and racist formation of the modern human rights discourse

Joseph Conrad's "Heart of Darkness". The Display of Victorian Values in a Context of Crisis Anna Buchroth, 2017-01-09 Studienarbeit aus dem Jahr 2015 im Fachbereich Anglistik Literatur Note 1 3 Technische Universität Carolo Wilhelmina zu Braunschweig Institut für Anglistik Amerikanistik Veranstaltung Victorian Cities Sprache Deutsch Abstract In the Scramble for Africa of the colonial era the British nation justified their expansion in which they took other people's land by claiming a civilizing mission based on its own moral racial and national superiority The Norton Anthology of British Literature Victorian Imperialism In practice however this superiority was constantly challenged The colonial officers who were sent to the colonies struggled with the new environment which was different from Europe in many ways They had difficulties in adopting to the new setting which they perceived as a nowhere place a place far off from civilization where people live after their own rules Being in the wilderness the colonial rulers were not subjected to supervision and judicial authority like in Europe The paper at hand seeks to explore the influence of the African setting on the colonial masters with reference to the novel Heart of Darkness by Joseph Conrad The claim is that exposed to the African environment Victorian values no longer prove valid This thesis will be discussed with reference to the novel s protagonist Mr Kurtz who is depicted as a colonial agent working in the Congo for a British trading company      “The” Athenaeum ,1878      Catalogue of Books Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh,1907
