The Dark Side Of Christian Counselling:

The Dark Side of Christian Counselling E. S. Williams, 2009 It is amazing how rapidly the Christian counselling movement has spread through churches teaching that hurts and depressions once considered part of normal life are illnesses to be treated It implies that for 1900 years the Bible has been insufficient for the woes of God's people or for their sanctification but that now we have the insights of anti-Christian psychologists to make good the deficit In this book medical doctor Ted Williams challenges these claims giving the most clear cut and interesting overview of the counselling movement and of the giants of secular psychology who are pillars of its faith Five Pathways to Wholeness Roger Hurding, 2013-06-20 Five Pathways to Wholeness examines a variety of approaches to pastoral care biblical counselling the healing ministries pastoral counselling spiritual direction and social change Bringing together material from a range of sources and offering numerous engaging real life illustrations the author compares and evaluates each of the five approaches in its own right At the same time he encourages those who favour a particular pathway to respect and understand the raison d'être of the other four All five he believes can move to a more truly integrational theological and psychological viewpoint Through and Beyond Together David H Walker, 2011-12 Through and Beyond TOGETHER Scary things that happen in childhood do not have to affect you forever It was bewildering for this four year old boy to leave my happy family in wartime to be safe To be nearly shipwrecked made me terrified then fearful throughout childhood My parents never stopped loving us from afar and praying Our new American family had faith and love too Peace did come We did return to England There we moved to Ilford Young fun loving Christian friends there accepted stuttering little me As I grew up still feeling fragile they pushed me to apply for college when I often felt worthless When God heard my cries of desperation in a phone box outside the college He healed me amazingly I began to feel that the Creator was guiding me towards a very creative career Jesus said Ask I prayed to be shown His Way He had heard and guided through and beyond difficult times So God gave fresh courage to go on to work with criminals and others who struggled with life I learnt that those who really want to change can be helped So led by the Wonderful Counsellor I found myself starting a new Christian helping service called Listening Post This book is about my travelling companions through life It tells how we learned together to help struggling people to move from despair to peace Best of all are accounts offered by nine people who found lasting freedom beyond their struggles Christians of all denominations put theological differences aside by coming TOGETHER to set up Christian Counselling services Through describing these stories we hope others like you will be encouraged Please put differences aside Be single minded Listen to God He hears you He will help you listen to learn and learn to listen Then find that real change is possible today With God all things are possible Of Good Comfort Stephen Pietsch, 2016-09-16 This is a feast for theologians historians and Christian counselors Pietsch examines 21 of Luther's letters of comfort to explore Luther's pastoral care for souls suffering with depression Pietsch uses interdisciplinary tools of inquiry artfully to examine the letters Luther's pastoral care approaches and the history of the melancholy tradition The practice of seelsorge emerges as an amalgam of art spiritual gift and understanding of affliction all resting comfortably within the authority of scripture and the Lutheran Confessions Pietsch's volume is a significant contribution to spiritual care literature underscoring the conviction of the early church that individual soul care is an essential response to serve those who despair Offering pivotal pastoral care insights that are often lost discredited or entirely absent in the work of caring for those who suffer with depression Pietsch concludes that Luther has given us excellent tools to examine learn and to teach as we assist souls to find hope strength and healing in the gospel of Jesus Christ Professor Beverly Yahnke Concordia University Wisconsin Executive Director of Christian Counsel Doxology Lutheran Centre for Spiritual Care and Counsel

New Dictionary of Christian Ethics & Pastoral Theology David J. Atkinson, David F. Field, Arthur F. Holmes, Oliver O'Donovan, 2013-11-21 Encompassing a wide range of topics from the timely health care and business ethics to the traditional atonement suffering and the kingdom of God this work features an easy to use reference system and eighteen articles that introduce readers to key themes in moral pastoral and practical theology Edited by David J Atkinson and David F Field with consulting editors Arthur Holmes and Oliver O Donovan

Person-Centred Counselling and Christian Spirituality Brian Thorne, 1998 This second volume of Brian Thorne's collected works shows convincingly that the spiritual needs and yearnings of many clients presenting themselves to secular counsellors can no longer be ignored trivialised or pathologised The book constitutes an impassioned plea both to person centred therapists to acknowledge the centrality of spiritual issues for many of their clients and also to Christians to embrace the richness of their spiritual tradition without becoming entangled in the death dealing complexity of religious and institutional power mongering

New Dictionary of Christian Ethics and Pastoral Theology David John Atkinson, David Field, Arthur Frank Holmes, Oliver O'Donovan, 1995 Instead of the usual A to Z listings throughout this reference work is organized into two parts The first part includes 18 extended articles arranged in theological order which introduce readers to the main themes of Christian ethics and pastoral theology Part two features more than 700 articles arranged alphabetically which are extensively cross referenced to the main themes from publisher

What's Wrong with Us? Colin Feltham, 2007-08-13 What is the scope of the human condition What are the origins of universal human problems What is wrong with education marriage religion and therapy How likely are we as humans to correct these problems Colin Feltham Professor of Critical Counselling Studies at Sheffield Hallam University UK and member of Crisis Forum for the Study of Crisis in the 21st Century argues that the current crises of the human condition are merely symptoms of a chronic wayward tendency otherwise branded in What's Wrong With Us as anthropathology The origins of human suffering are traced with interdisciplinary adeptness exploring the contemporary issues of human violence deceit patriarchy rapaciousness child abuse irrationality and capitalist greed Our human anthropathology is assessed as being at the heart of such problems This book breaks new ground in bringing many anthropathological themes together in a sustained frontal attack on dangerous human anachronisms We cannot be sure that we can solve our problems but we can be sure that denying them will protract and worsen the situation for both ourselves and our descendants A challenging and enlightening book for students and academics in counselling and psychotherapy psychology sociology philosophy and religion Also a gripping read for those with a general interest in our current social state The Psychologist ,2008 The Christian Advocate ,1926 Person-Centred Counselling Brian Thorne,1991 This book draws together chapters articles and lectures from some twelve years of Brian Thorne s professional life as a person centred therapist Sermon Illustrations of the Bible Keith Leroy Brooks,1920 Counselling in Religion and Psychiatry Sir Desmond Pond,1973 The biblical illustrator: or, Anecdotes [&c.] on the verses of the Bible, by J.S. Exell Joseph Samuel Exell,1886 African Theology in Images Martin Ott,2007 This is a revised and updated edition of the comprehensive study of the role of art in the process of inculturation in Africa first issued in 2000 The study is a substantial contribution toward a theology of inculturation in Africa and enriches the debate on indigenous African and Christian artistic traditions It represents the first systematic theology constructed in and from Malawi that establishes a theology of symbolic expression in Africa The Intercollegian ,1943 The Corrector ,1959 Baptist Commonwealth ,1901
