Language in the Academy Joan Turner,2010-12-01

This book takes a critical look at why issues of language in higher education are routinely marginalised despite the growing internationalisation of universities Through analyses of a variety of intercultural encounters the book highlights the range of interpretative possibilities available for understanding these encounters and suggests the role that the reality of the contemporary intercultural dynamic between the Socratic and Confucian pedagogic traditions can play in driving change to the pedagogic practices of higher education Another important aim of the book is to examine language in the academy as an object of cultural theory While rooted in the practical and empirical reality of teaching and using language in higher education this book argues for the importance of examining the institutional interface between language and higher education and of critically exploring the values inscribed in the pedagogy and evaluation of academic language The Contemplative Foundations of Classical Daoism Harold D. Roth,2021-05-01 In The Contemplative Foundations of Classical Daoism Harold D Roth explores the origins and nature of the Daoist tradition arguing that its creators and innovators were not abstract philosophers but rather mystics engaged in self exploration and self cultivation which in turn provided the insights embodied in such famed works as the Daodejing and Zhuangzi In this compilation of essays and chapters representing nearly thirty years of scholarship Roth examines the historical and intellectual origins of Daoism and demonstrates how this distinctive philosophy emerged directly from practices that were essentially contemplative in nature In the first part of the book Roth applies text critical methods to derive the hidden contemplative dimensions of classical Daoism In the second part he applies a contemplative hermeneutic to explore the relationship between contemplative practices and classical Daoist philosophy and in so doing brings early Daoist writings into conversation with contemporary contemplative studies To this he adds an introduction in which he reflects on the arc and influence on the field of early Chinese thought of this rich vein of scholarship and an afterword in which he applies both interpretive methods to the vexing question of the authorship of the Inner Chapters of the Zhuangzi The Contemplative Foundations of Classical Daoism brings to fruition the cumulative investigations and observations of a leading figure in the emerging field of contemplative studies as they pertain to a core component of early Chinese thought The Taoist Tradition in Chinese Thought Yao-yü Wu,1991
