The Diary of a U-boat Commander William Stephen Richard King-hall, Sir, 2017-04-04 I made no reply I had just granted him a favour by allowing him to leave the upper deck of the submarine in order that he might await the motor launch in some sort of privacy why should he ask for more Undeterred by my silence he continued I have a great friend Lieutenant zu See Von Schenk who brought U 122 over last week he has lost a diary quite private he left it in err can he have it I deliberated felt a certain pity then remembered the Belgian Prince and other things and so looking the German in the face I said I can do nothing Please I shook my head then to my astonishment the German placed his head in his hands and wept his massive frame for he was a very big man shook in irregular spasms it was a most extraordinary spectacle It seemed to me absurd that a man who had suffered without visible emotion the monstrous humiliation of handing over his command intact should break down over a trivial incident concerning a diary and not even his own diary and yet there was this man crying openly before me
