Measuring Spiritual Maturity Randy Tompkins, 2019-10-21 Jesus commissioned His apostles and by extension the church to make disciples. Many church leaders have come to the conclusion that attending worship services and Bible study classes will result in making disciples. A review of statistical reports indicates a majority of church members and attenders do not believe this process will work or they have come to the conclusion they do not want to become disciples. The 2010 US Religion Census report indicated 79% of the 150,686,156 members, children and other attenders did not attend worship services. It also reported over 60% of the same group did not attend Bible study classes. In 2014, one of the major denominations in the United States reported 63% of church members did not attend worship services and 62% did not attend Bible study classes. There are literally thousands of spiritual surveys available to church leaders. A majority of these surveys develop conclusions based on a single survey being administered or two surveys being administered several months apart. If a disciple-making process is to be effective, there needs to be a method of measuring the progress of individuals moving toward spiritual maturity. This type of measurement would produce a visual of spiritual growth, spiritual decline, or spiritual non-growth. The only way to measure the spiritual progress of an individual is to create a measurement of the various elements of the spiritual life. The process of measuring spiritual maturity in this book is self-contained within the participating church and the responses of the participating individuals are highly confidential and warehoused by the participating church.

The Multidimensional Pastor Samson Uytanlet, 2020-07-08 A number of books have been written on the various roles of the pastor and many of these works focus on one particular aspect of the pastoral ministry only or just a few of them. The Multidimensional Pastor is an attempt to bring together and discuss in a single volume these various elements of the pastoral ministry with a goal of looking at principles from the Scripture to guide the pastors as they fulfill these various roles. The purpose of this work is to provide a balanced perspective and a bigger picture of the pastors' functions while acknowledging their personal limitations. In this way, readers can develop a more realistic set of expectations from a pastor and celebrate the variety of expressions of the ministry.

Jesus Christ, Disciplemaker

Bill Hull, 2004-02-01

Thomas doubted Peter denied Matthew had a shady past. And most of Jesus' disciples had trouble understanding his true message and mission at times. How did Jesus take lowly fishermen and tax collectors and turn them into some of the most influential men that ever lived? And how can modern church leaders empower regular church members to meet their potential as servants of God? In Jesus Christ Disciplemaker, Hull outlines Christ's methods in training his twelve disciples and presents a biblical pattern that emulates Christ's model for reaching the lost. By taking readers through four growth phases: evangelizing, establishing, equipping and leading, Hull shows how these principles can be adapted for any discipler. Jesus Christ Disciplemaker is the perfect resource for pastors and church leaders who want to learn how to help others grow in God's service.

Discipleship that Fits

Bobby Harrington, Alex Absalom, 2016-02-09

For far too long the church has tried to make disciples using a one size fits all approach. Some churches advocate 1 on 1 discipling others, trying to get everyone into a small group while still others train through mission trips or service projects. Yet others focus all their efforts on attracting people to a large group gathering to hear biblical teaching and preaching. But does one size really fit everyone? Based on careful biblical study and years of experience making disciples in the local church, Bobby Harrington and Alex Absalom have identified five key relationships where discipleship happens in our lives. In each relational context we need to understand how discipleship occurs and we need to set appropriate expectations for each context. Discipleship That Fits shows you the five key ways discipleship occurs. It looks at how Jesus made disciples and how disciples were formed in the early church. Each of the contexts is necessary at different times and in different ways as a person grows toward maturity in Christ.

Public Relationships The church gathering corporately for worship. Social Relationships Networks of smaller relationships where we engage in mission and live out our faith in community. Personal Relationships Small groups of six to sixteen people where we challenge and encourage one another on a regular basis. Transparent Relationships Close relationships of three to four where we share intimate details of our lives for accountability. The Divine Relationship Our relationship with Jesus Christ where we grow through the empowering presence of the Holy Spirit. Filled with examples and stories, Alex and Bobby show you how to develop discipleship practices in each relational context by sharing how Jesus did it how the early church practiced it and how churches are discipling people today     The Disciple Maker's Handbook Bobby Harrington,Josh Robert Patrick,2017-02-07 Many people believe that discipleship is important but they need help In fact the vast majority of Christians report that they have never been personally discipled by a more mature follower of Jesus Is it any wonder that they have a difficult time knowing how to disciple others If making disciples of Jesus is the greatest cause on earth how should we equip people to do it This handbook is a practical guide for how to embrace the discipleship lifestyle being a disciple of Jesus and how to make other disciples of Jesus With contributions from pastors and teachers like Francis Chan Jeff Vanderstelt Bill Hull Jim Putman KP Yohannan and Robert Coleman the authors present seven elements that are necessary for disciple making to occur Jesus the original disciple maker and centerpiece of discipleship Holy Spirit fuels the disciple making process Intentionality making disciples utilizing a strategy and a roadmap Relationships creating a loving genuine connection with others who trust and follow Jesus Bible using the Word of God as the manual for making disciples Journey forging a traceable growth story from a new birth to spiritual parenthood Multiply reproducing the discipleship process so that the disciple becomes a disciple maker Whether you are a parent who wants to disciple your children a small group leader who wants to disciple those in your group or a church leader who wants to disciple future leaders the seven key elements in this handbook form a framework for understanding discipleship that can be applied in countless situations In addition there are questions provided in each section to help you think through how to apply the material to your disciple making efforts     Love as Jesus Loved: Transformed Relationships Bill Hull,Paul Mascarella,2022-06-28 The love that flows from your life is a reflection of your Christlike character But what does that look like By cultivating trust in your relationships practicing the character of humility and submitting yourself to God you can learn to love as Jesus loved Experience the Life a thirty week life changing series for individuals and groups is composed of five books each six weeks long You ll learn how to read Scripture think about what you read pray over it and live it out Through studying God s Word gathering with others and learning to pray and journal you ll experience true spiritual transformation and become like Christ as you prepare to lead others along the same journey Book 1 Believe as Jesus Believed Transformed Mind Book 2 Live as Jesus Lived Transformed Character Book 3 Love as Jesus Loved Transformed Relationships Book 4 Minister as Jesus Ministered Transformed Service Book 5 Lead as Jesus Led Transformed Influence The leader s guide contains a complete participant s guide plus discussion questions for each gathering An online video is available for use in introducing each session with the code provided
