

THE DIVINE DECISION

A PROCESS DOCTRINE OF ELECTION

DONNA BOWMAN

FOREWORD BY JOHN B. COBB JR.

The Divine Decision A Process Doctrine Of Election

David Baud

The Divine Decision A Process Doctrine Of Election:

The Divine Decision Donna Bowman,2002-01-01 Donna Bowman utilizes the work of process thinker Alfred North Whitehead to develop a doctrine of election that dialogues with the view of Reformed theologian Karl Barth. Taking seriously Barth's contention that election is the best of all words that can be spoken about God. Bowman reinterprets Whitehead's description of God's provision of the initial aim to each entity as the central cosmological and theological fact of universal election. By combining Barth's concerns with process categories she concludes that both systems are aimed at common theological and philosophical enemies. The New Cambridge Companion to Christian Doctrine Michael Allen,2022-11-17

This Companion guides the reader through the main topics and the most significant methods for practicing Christian theology. The essays in this first part engage the ten most notable loci in Christian doctrine. The ten essays in the second part address the most significant movements that have broad impact upon the practice of Christian doctrine.

Reading the Gospels with Karl Barth Migliore, Daniel L.,2017 Papers presented at the 2015 Karl Barth Conference held June 21-24 at Princeton Theological Seminary on the theme of Karl Barth and the Gospels. Interpreting Gospel Texts Calvin's Theology and Its Reception J. Todd Billings, I. John Hesselink,2012-09-28 J Todd Billings and I John Hesselink have compiled an essential collection of essays for the study of John Calvin's theology. Leading Calvin scholars examine the early and late reception history of Calvin's fundamental teachings including reflections on the contemporary possibilities and limitations in developing Calvin's thought. Contributors include Timothy Hessel Robinson Michael S Horton Mark Husbands David Little Suzanne McDonald Jeannine E Olson Sue A Rozeboom and Carl R Trueman.

The Humanity of Christ Paul Dafydd Jones,2008-09-01 Drawing on the best English and German language scholarship to date this book offers a novel interpretation of Barth's mature Christology. Examining the entirety of the Dogmatics it provides a nuanced analysis of Barth's treatment of the Chalcedonian Definition the enhypostasis anhypostasis pairing and various Protestant scholastic Christological distinctions an examination of the co-inherence of Barth's doctrines of God and Christ which contributes to current debates about Barth's doctrine of election and a lengthy account of the Christology of Church Dogmatics IV that foregrounds Barth's understanding of Christ's human involvement in the drama of reconciliation. Throughout the text the author shows convincingly that Barth's emphasis on Christ's divinity goes hand in hand with a dogmatically rich and often startling account of Christ's humanity. The text does not confine itself to the Church Dogmatics. It also situates Barth in the context of the wider Christian tradition and modern western philosophy of religion. Thus Barth is set in conversation with a wide range of thinkers including Anselm of Canterbury Martin Luther John Calvin Friedrich Schleiermacher G W F Hegel Gottfried Thomasius and Harry Frankfurt. In addition the text makes a number of constructive gestures showing a particular interest in feminist and liberationist trajectories of thought. The final chapter considers the standing of Barth's Christology today and its pertinence for theological ethics and political theology.
