The Early Louis Sullivan, Building Photographs Crombie Taylor, Louis H. Sullivan, Jeffrey Plank, 2001-01 Contains photographs of buildings designed by Louis Sullivan in his early professional years taken by late nineteenth century photographers J W Taylor R Cleveland H Fuermann and others Louis H. Sullivan and a 19th-Century Poetics of Naturalized Architecture Lauren S. Weingarden, 2017-07-05 For most of the twentieth century modernist viewers dismissed the architectural ornament of Louis H Sullivan 1856 1924 and the majority of his theoretical writings as emotional outbursts of an outmoded romanticism In this study Lauren Weingarden reveals Sullivan s eloquent articulation of nineteenth century romantic practices literary linguistic aesthetic spiritual and nationalistic and thus rescues Sullivan and his legacy from the narrow role imposed on him as a pioneer of twentieth century modernism Using three interpretive models discourse theory poststructural semiotic analysis and a pragmatic concept of sign functions she restores the integrity of Sullivan s artistic choices and his historical position as a culminating figure within nineteenth century romanticism By giving equal weight to Louis Sullivan s writings and designs Weingarden shows how he translated both Ruskin s tenets of Gothic naturalism and Whitman s poetry of the American landscape into elemental structural forms and organic ornamentation Viewed as a site where various romantic discourses converged Sullivan s oeuvre demands a cross disciplinary exploration of each discursive practice and its rules of accumulation exclusion reactivation The overarching theme of this study is the interrogation and restitution of those Foucauldian rules that enabled Sullivan to articulate architecture as a pictorial mode of landscape art which he considered co equal with the spiritual and didactic functions of landscape poetry Louis Sullivan Hugh Morrison, 2001-07-31 The first definitive biography of the now famous architect Hugh Morrison s Louis Sullivan Prophet of Modern Architecture is still the best introduction to his work This reissue provides Morrison s original text and illustrations in a larger more modern format It also offers an assessment of Morrison s ground breaking research in Timothy J Samuelson s Introduction and most important an authoritative revision of the chronological List of Buildings including corrections of the data in light of six decades of research Working from Morrison s original notes Samuelson has restored a number of photographic images intended for the original edition and has replaced some photographs with alternate images that more accurately represent the buildings He has also added a selected bibliography of important works about Sullivan Page 4 of cover Wright on Exhibit Kathryn Smith, 2022-07-12 The first history of Frank Lloyd Wright s exhibitions of his own work a practice central to his career More than one hundred exhibitions of Frank Lloyd Wright s work were mounted between 1894 and his death in 1959 Wright organized the majority of these exhibitions himself and viewed them as crucial to his self presentation as his extensive writings He used them to promote his designs appeal to new viewers and persuade his detractors Wright on Exhibit presents the first history of this neglected aspect of the architect s influential career Drawing extensively from Wright s unpublished correspondence Kathryn Smith challenges the preconceived notion of Wright as a self promoter who displayed his work in search of money clients and fame She shows how he was an artist architect projecting an avant garde program an innovator who expanded the palette of installation design as technology evolved and a social activist driven to revolutionize society through design While Wright s earliest exhibitions were largely for other architects by the 1930s he was creating public installations intended to inspire debate and change public perceptions about architecture The nature of his exhibitions expanded with the times beyond models drawings and photographs to include more immersive tools such as slides film and even a full scale structure built especially for his 1953 retrospective at the Guggenheim Museum Placing Wright s exhibitions side by side with his writings Smith shows how integral these exhibitions were to his vision and sheds light on the broader discourse concerning architecture and modernism during the first half of the twentieth century Wright on Exhibit features color renderings photos and plans as well as a checklist of exhibitions and an illustrated catalog of extant and lost models made under Wright s supervision Design Book Review ,2001 They All Fall Down Richard Cahan,1994-09-01 Richard Nickel whom I had the delight of knowing during hisall too brief life is one of the unsung heroes of Chicagoarchitecture He was not an architect himself nor a designer Hesimply took pictures but what pictures He was for want of abetter description one of the most sensitive of architecturalphotographers More than that his life and ironically tragically and poetically his death were fused to Chicagoarchitecture How he died tells us how he lived for the beauty inthe works of Sullivan Wright and the others His story is one thatmust be told Studs Terkel author He was completely understanding of architecture and genius andof the quality of the work he was dealing with He wassingle minded in his pursuit and dedication to quality in history art and architecture That is an increasingly rare quality Ada Louise Huxtable former New York Timesarchitecture critic Richard was an excellent photographer sensitive andintelligent and a very good craftsman John Szarkowski former Director Photography Museumof Modern Art New York Richard Nickel was one of those who saw architecture and whopassionately and skillfully pursued its portrayal He was one of avery small number and to make his work known would be afundamental service to architects students and teachers as wellas to the art of architecture Edgar Kaufmann Jr architectural historian The Idea of Louis Sullivan John Szarkowski,Louis H. Sullivan,1956

Consuming Architecture Daniel Maudlin,Marcel Vellinga,2014-03-05 Projecting forward in time from the processes of design and construction that are so often the focus of architectural discourse Consuming Architecture examines the variety of ways in which buildings are consumed after they have been produced focusing in particular on processes of occupation appropriation and interpretation Drawing on contributions by architects historians anthropologists literary critics artists film makers photographers and journalists it shows how the consumption of architecture is a dynamic and creative act that involves the creation and negotiation of meanings and values by different stakeholders and that can be expressed in different voices In so doing it challenges ideas of what constitutes architecture architectural discourse and architectural education how we understand and think about it and who can claim ownership of it Consuming Architecture is aimed at students in architectural education and will also be of interest to students and researchers from disciplines that deal with architecture in terms of consumption and material culture

Modern in the Middle Susan Benjamin, Michelangelo Sabatino, 2020-09-01

The first survey of the classic twentieth century houses that defined American Midwestern modernism Famed as the birthplace of that icon of twentieth century architecture the skyscraper Chicago also cultivated a more humble but no less consequential form of modernism the private residence Modern in the Middle Chicago Houses 1929-75 explores the substantial yet overlooked role that Chicago and its suburbs played in the development of the modern single family house in the twentieth century In a city often associated with the outsize reputations of Frank Lloyd Wright and Ludwig Mies van der Rohe the examples discussed in this generously illustrated book expand and enrich the story of the region's built environment Authors Susan Benjamin and Michelangelo Sabatino survey dozens of influential houses by architects whose contributions are ripe for reappraisal such as Paul Schweikher Harry Weese Keck Keck and William Pereira From the bold early example of the Battledeck House by Henry Dubin 1930 to John Vinci and Lawrence Kenny's gem the Freeark House 1975 the generation spanning residences discussed here reveal how these architects contended with climate and natural setting while negotiating the dominant influences of Wright and Mies They also reveal how residential clients typically middle class professionals progressive in their thinking helped to trailblaze modern architecture in America Though reflecting different approaches to site space structure and materials the examples in Modern in the Middle reveal an abundance of astonishing houses that have never been collected into one study until now

Photography's great success gives the impression that the major questions that have haunted the medium are now resolved On the contrary the most important questions about photography are just beginning to be asked These fourteen essays with over 200 illustrations critically examine prevailing beliefs about the medium and suggest new ways to explain the history of photography They are organized around the questions What are the social consequences of aesthetic practice How does photography construct sexual difference How is photography used to promote class and national interests What are the politics of photographic truth The Contest of Meaning summarizes the challenges to traditional photographic history that have developed in the last decade out of a consciously political critique of photographic production Contributions by a wide range of important Americans critics reexamine the complex and often contradictory roles of photography within society Douglas Crimp Christopher Phillips Benjamin Buchloh and Abigail Solomon Godeau examine the gradually developed exclusivity of art photography and describe the politics of canon formation throughout modernism Catherine Lord Deborah Bright Sally Stein and Jan Zita Grover examine the ways in which the female is configured as a subject and explain how sexual difference is constructed across various registers of photographic representation Carol Squiers Esther Parada and Richard Bolton clarify the ways in which photography serves as a form of mass communication demonstrating in particular how photographic production is affected by the interests of the powerful patrons of communications The three concluding essays by Rosalind Krauss Martha Rosler and Allan Sekula critically examine the concept of photographic truth by exploring the intentions informing various uses of objective images within society     The Architectural Review ,2002     Catalogue, Annual Exhibition of the Saint Louis Architectural Club ,1899     Journal of the Royal Institute of British Architects Royal Institute of British Architects,1929     Journal of the Royal Institute of British Architects ,1929     Image ,1971     The Western Architect ,1920     American Builder ,1924     Catalogue of the Library of the Graduate School of Design, Harvard University Harvard University.
